

SMOG SCREEN

Polluted air offends the eyes and nose in suburban and rural areas; it costs billions by dirtying clothing, homes and public buildings; it eats away at metal and stone; it restricts visibility, making ground and air travel dangerous. And it kills.

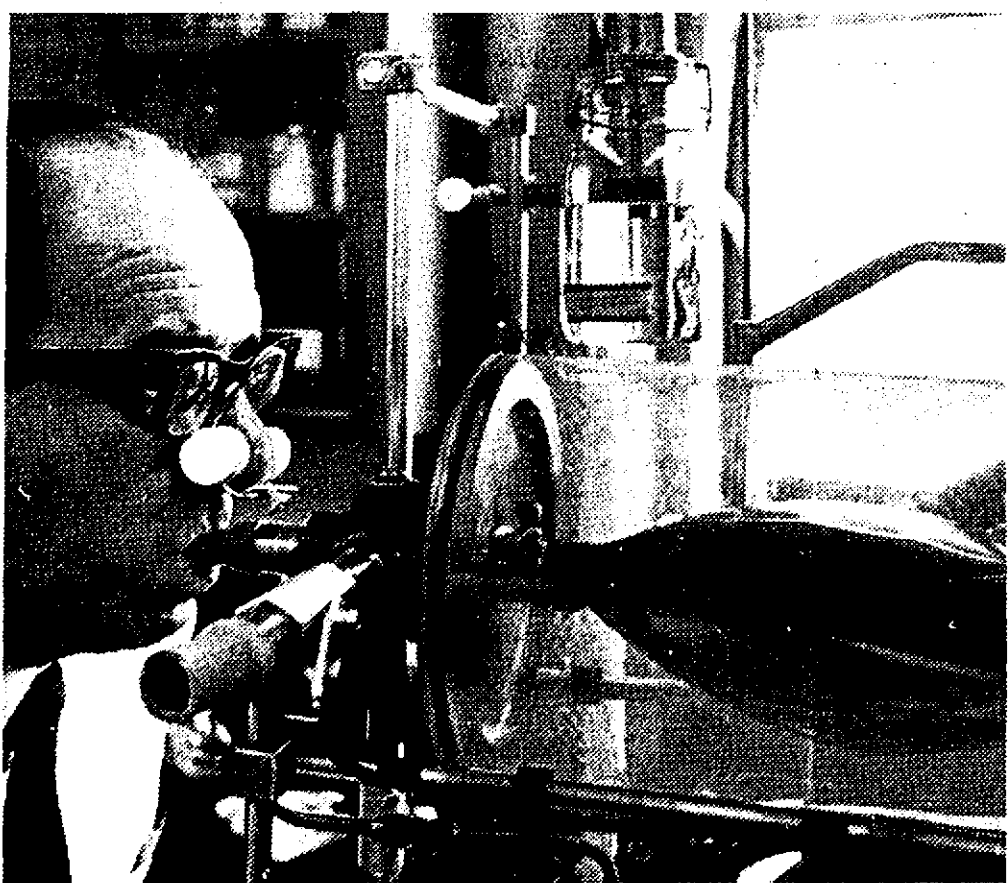

The air we breathe can include everything from plain dirt to gases and particles left over from the burning of fuels and refuse to chemicals released in industrial operations and compounds from car exhausts.

The search for ways to achieve and maintain a clean atmosphere demands the research talents of an army of engineers, medical men, meteorologists, physicists and chemists.

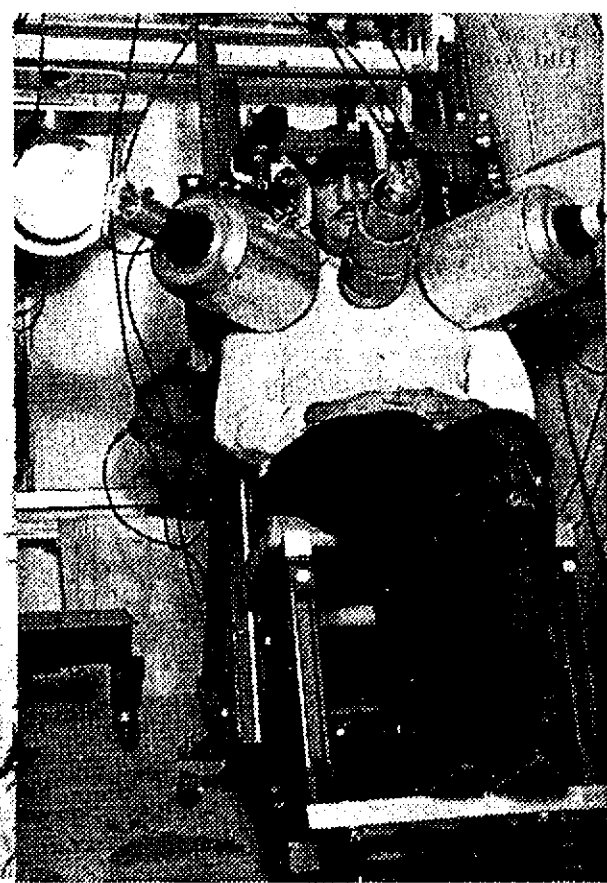

Such an army of researchers is at work at New York University, the largest private university in the nation. Included in their work is a wind tunnel studying experiments in environmental control and studying living organisms on the breathing process.

Launching constant-altitude balloons to study how air circulation patterns move, disperse and mix pollutants.

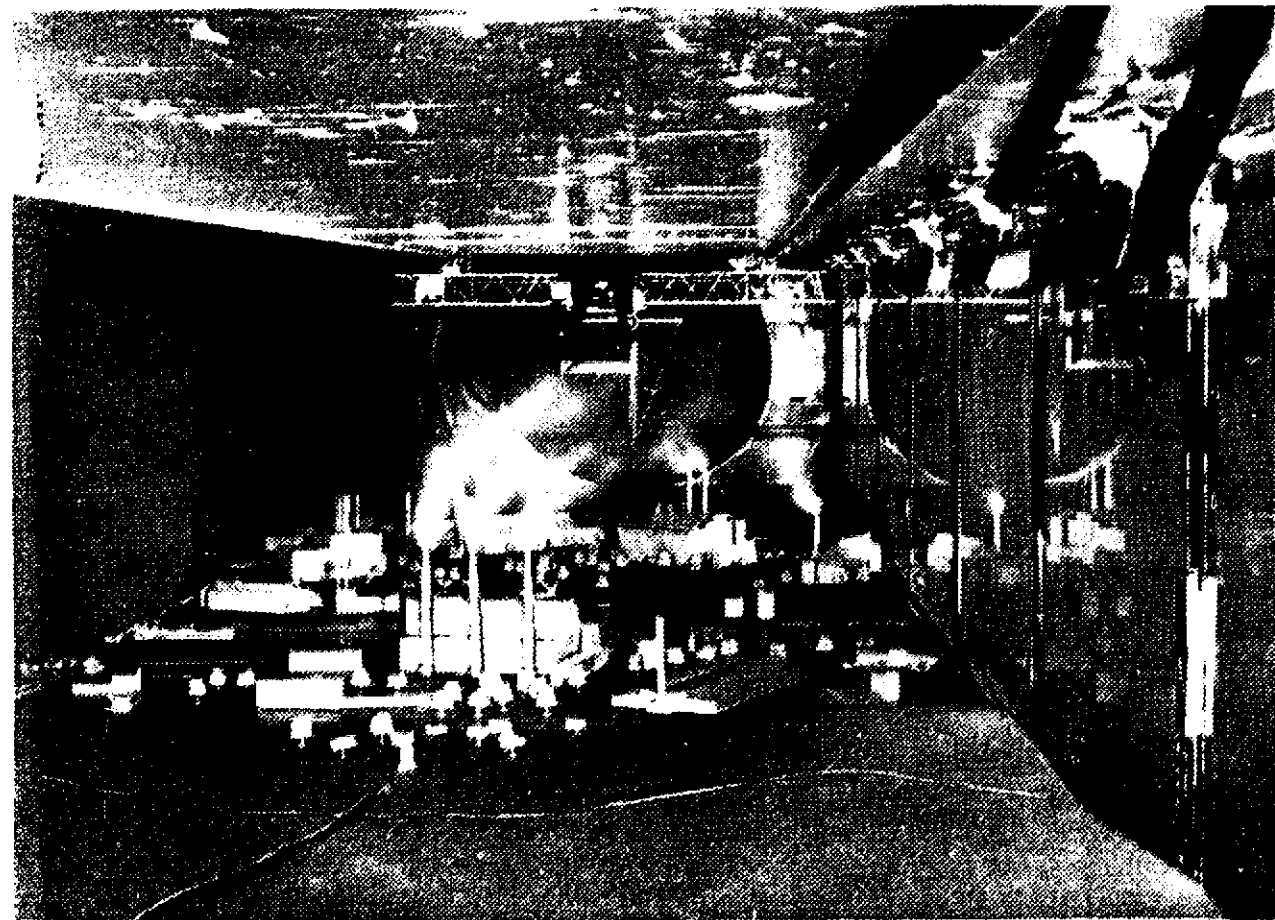

NYU professor breathes carefully-measured quantities of air and airborne particles through apparatus.

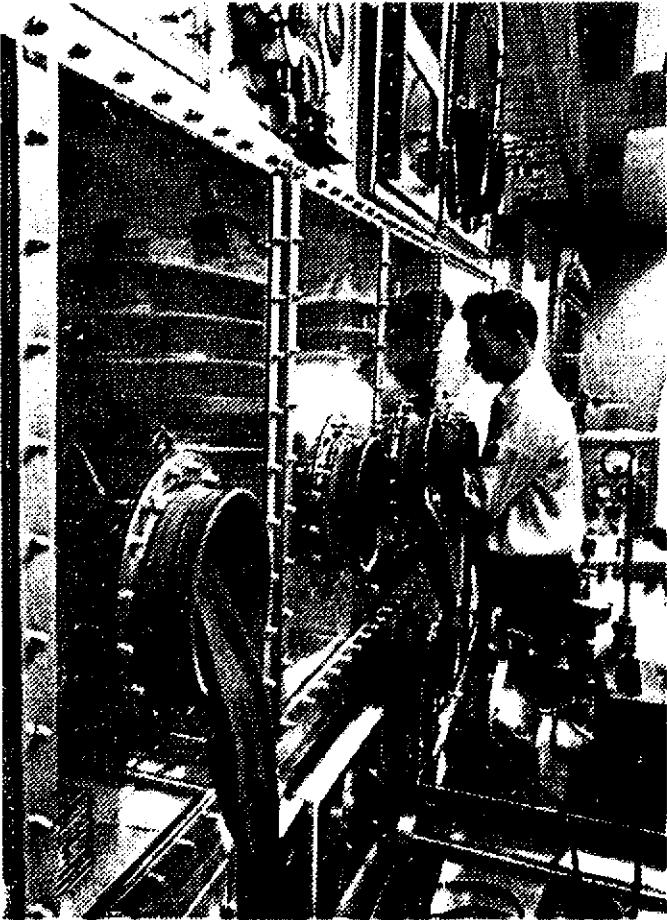

Instruments trace movement of particles in lungs and speed and efficiency in expelling them.

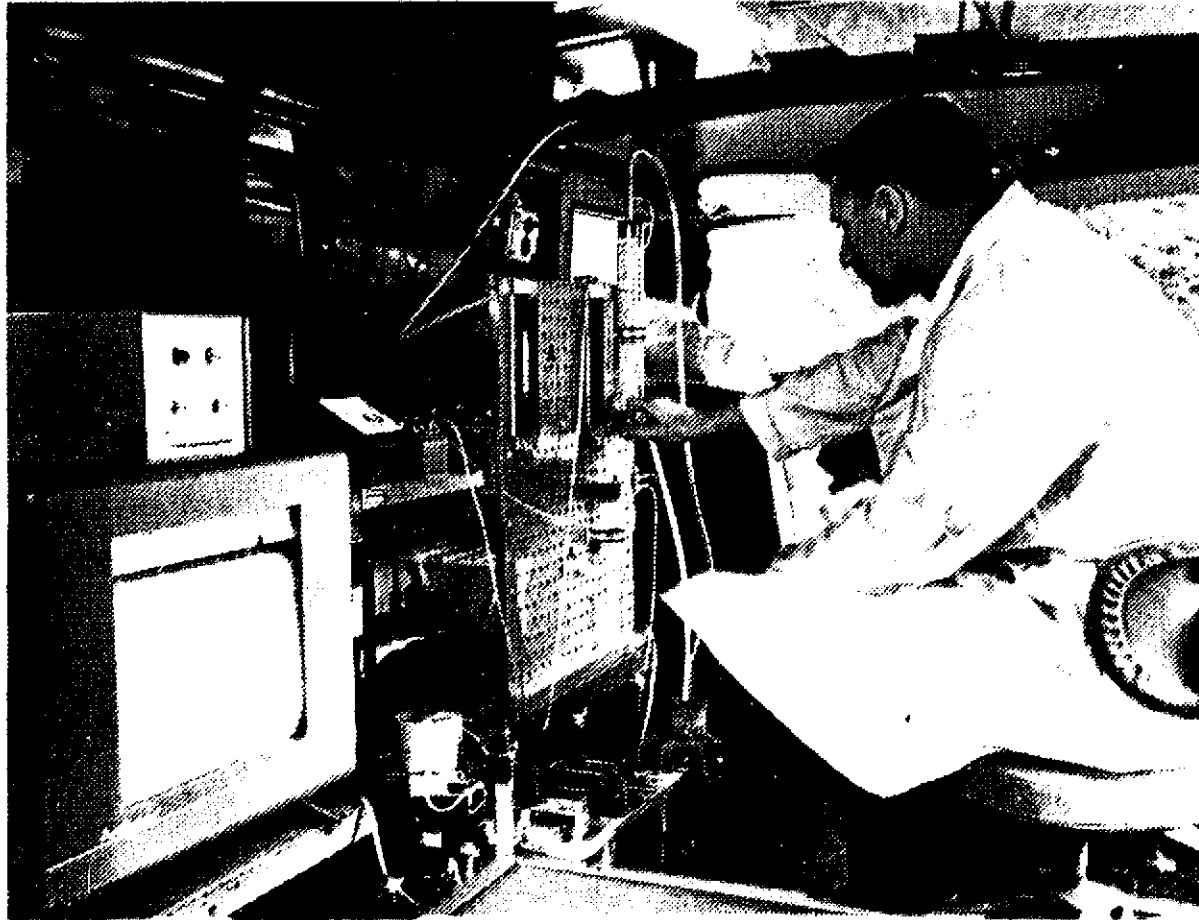

Donkey is subject for inhalation experiments on effects of pollutants on living organisms.

Industrial complex scale model testing in wind tunnel

Lab mice in controlled atmosphere chambers

Collecting air samplings in the mobile laboratory.

This Week's PICTURE SHOW—AP Newsfeatures.

SOCIETY

Phone 7-3431 Between 8 A.M. and 4 P.M.

Calendar of Events

SATURDAY, JANUARY 14

A potluck and cards entertainment will be held at the Hope Country Club Saturday, January 14 beginning at 7 p.m. Host couples are: Dr. and Mrs. Don Freil, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kellan, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fouse.

A Country Music Jamboree will be held in the Patmos School auditorium on Saturday, January 14. The "Rainbow Melodies" and other bands will be featured. The public is invited to attend.

MONDAY, JANUARY 16

WCSO Circle 5 will meet at the Methodist Church in the Mary and Martha Classroom on Monday, January 16 at 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. Van Boyce and Mrs. J. C. Atchley co-hostesses. Study chairman Mrs. Calvin Smith requests members to read James and 1 Peter before coming to the meeting and to bring their bibles.

The W. M. S. of the First Baptist Church will meet Monday afternoon January 16, in the following homes:

- Circle 1 - Mrs. Clarence Geist at 1:30 p.m.
- Circle 2 - Mrs. Owen Hollis at 1:30 p.m.
- Circle 3 - Mrs. Bill Watson at 1:30 p.m.
- Circle 4 - Mrs. L. M. Garner at 1:30 p.m.
- Circle 5 - Mrs. Bob Tolleson at 1:30 p.m.
- Circle 7 - Mrs. Douglas Drake at 1:30 p.m.

The Builders Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church will meet Monday, Jan. 16 at 7:30 in the home of Mrs. C. O. Temple. Mrs. Jack Arnett will be co-hostess.

The Choir of the First Presbyterian Church will practice at 7:00 p.m. Monday night.

Unit 20 of the Arkansas Hairdressers Association will meet Monday night January 16 at the Town and Country Restaurant at 7:30 p.m. at which time we will have installation of Officers.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17

Leslie Huddleston Legion Auxiliary No. 12 will meet with Mrs. J. W. Branch Tuesday night January 17, at 7:30. The speaker will be Mrs. Joe Keese, she will speak on "National Security and Legislature". All members are urged to be present.

WEDNESDAY JANUARY 18

The Presbyterian Youth Choir will practice at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday.

At 6:30 there will be a Potluck Dinner and every member is welcome.

A Bible Study "The Basis of Our Unity in Christ," led by the Rev. C. Phil Esty, Associate Pastor, Second Presbyterian Church, Memphis, Tenn., will begin our observance of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. Mr. Esty is an outstanding young minister whom many of our members have heard, and the congregation is urged to attend.

Helen Carpenter Back on Duty

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Capt. William S. Carpenter Jr. is back on duty with the 101st Airborne Division in Vietnam.

Carpenter, 28, famed as football's "Lonesome End" in 1959, became a battlefield hero last June when he called down napalm strikes on his own position to keep it from being overrun.

He was decorated for heroism and soon afterward assigned as an aide to Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam.

Today the general's headquarters announced Carpenter has returned to duty with the 101st.

Youth Beat

THE NATIONAL REPORT ON WHAT'S HAPPENING

THE BOX SCORE POPS FOR POP IN '66: The box score for top pop music hits over the last 12 months has just been racked up... see if you agree or disagree with it. Sales of records, according to music industry compilation, show that the 1966 "big five" were: First, S/Sgt. Barry Sadler's "Ballad of the Green Berets"; in tie for first, Simon and Garfunkel with "Sounds of Silence"; third, "Sunny" by Bobby Hebb; fourth, Frank Sinatra crooning "Strangers in the Night"; and fifth, "You Can't Hurry Love" spun out by the Supremes. A year ago, No. 1 was the Supremes, giving out with "Back in My Arms Again"; while in 1964 the Beatles hit it with the memorable, "I Want to Hold Your Hand." Returning to the pop music honors of the year just passed, highest popularity rating for men singers was topped by Gary Lewis, followed by James Brown and Elvis Presley; among girl singers Pet Clark led, then Dionne Warwick and Nancy Sinatra; the leading groups were Beatles, Rolling Stones and Lovin' Spoonful. Newcomers who broke through and rang the bell in one, two, three order in 1966 were: men singers—B. J. Thomas, Barry Sadler and Bobby Hebb; new-comer girl singers—Sandy Posey, Norma Tanega and Verdelle Smith; and new groups—Simon & Garfunkel, Mamas & Papas, and Paul Revere and the Raiders. Monthly melodies that during 1966 rang out merry music on cash registers as well as record players were, typically: January a year ago, the Beatles, "We Can Work It Out"; last March, Barry Sadler, "The Ballad of the Green Berets"; in June, the Rolling Stones, "Paint It Black"; and, come December, the big smash, "Winchester Cathedral" by the New Vaudeville Band.

TWO HIT TUNES SNEAKING UP TODAY: Bobby Darin's "Lovin' You," with Bobby's top vocal talent giving the sound an old-time, dreamy feeling... and Sonny & Cher hitting a hard-selling frug rhythm with smart lyrics in "The Beat Goes On." You'll be hearing both, more and more.

THE MORE GIRLS' FASHION CHANGES: The more it stays the same, a report from Britain points out. Newest styles repeat the oldest—and what's kooky now is nothing compared to what was kooky fashion a hundred or a thousand years ago. For example—the shift-type dress has shifted in and out for tens of centuries... tourists gaze at typical ones clinging to young Cleopatras—on ancient Egyptian bas-reliefs. The French are usually given credit for the invention of the modern bikini, but mademoiselle, way back in the days of the French Revolution, ingeniously "dressed" in nothing more than half a pound of thin, dampened muslin... as effectively revealing as today's bikini. In Crete 1,700 years ago a proper lady dressed in a toe-to-neck garment as shrouding as any of Queen Victoria's... but with "topless" cut-outs. In the other direction, the first daring slacks popped as bloomers stretching to ankles under long skirts 100-odd years ago—and were thought scandalous. Guess what sport loving girls around that date wore for playing tennis?—yards of cloth and laces draping them from choke collar to tight wrist to shoe tip, plus a flouncing, yard-wide bustle astern. For centuries "they" have been complaining about the way girls dress... So, what if "they" still do—about an eensy teensy, itty-bitsy, modern miniskirt?

BEGORRA, WHAT ARE YOUNG FOLKS COMING TO? Teen beatniks have sprouted in Ireland... to the alarm of police, church, parents and government. Dublin is reported to have a score of low-light cellar hangouts... in Limerick insidious observers state necking has been going on in some of them, and even "slimy sloppy dancing." The club owners retort, "We are keeping the kids off the streets." Holy Shamrock! what is happening to the Emerald Isle... once known as the habitat of the "wild Irish"?

PEEK-A-BOO beach cover-ups cut like little doll dresses cover teeny-weeny bikinis this resort season at Condado Beach, Puerto Rico. These are harbingers of things to come here for summer.

HELEN HENNESSY'S

BOUTIQUE

SAJON, South Vietnam (AP) — Capt. William S. Carpenter Jr. is back on duty with the 101st Airborne Division in Vietnam.

Carpenter, 28, famed as football's "Lonesome End" in 1959, became a battlefield hero last June when he called down napalm strikes on his own position to keep it from being overrun.

Today the general's headquarters announced Carpenter has returned to duty with the 101st.

PEEK-A-BOOS

Around the pool area of such plush places as the Americana Hotel, the El San Juan or the Condado Beach it is peek-a-boo time. Beach cover-ups, fashioned in see-through, openwork knits and cut like little doll dresses, add a whimsical touch of modesty and vainly try to conceal the postage-stamp bikini beneath. There are also thigh-high jersey shifts of bold, bold print. Did you ever see a psychedelic dream walking? Well I did!

Lace also makes the beach scene in a matching swimsuit (a modest one-piece this time) under its own frilly little jacket cut like an artist's smock. It's a costume that will appeal to the less daring and still keep them in the fashion swim.

TALL AND SHORT OF IT Height is of no consequence. Short or tall, if you're with it you'll wear the longest, flattest shoe possible. It's the rage in gold or silver here. But in this shape the gilt complex looks newer. By the wildest stretch of the imagination you could never call these shoes pretty. There are some who will call them downright ugly. But they do look "in."

FEATHERHEADS

Counting heads when island-hopping from San Juan to St. Thomas or St. Croix, you find several innovations in tropical headgear. They all seem like fun to wear, yet prove practical, too, in these isles where humidity can wreak havoc with a hairdo.

There are the "featherheads"—domelike berets that cover a head full of rollers. The lightweight stretch knit base fits all head sizes and it is completely covered with feathers. Looks like the baby chicks you see in pet shops at Easter. Some are in solid shades of white, turquoise, yellow, hot pink or lime. Others combine these colors in shocking contrasts.

There are also little chiffon cappers. Cut exactly like wigs these are masses of chiffon, stitched and draped. From a distance they resemble a formal hairdo.

What little straw to be seen is not the classic, traditional straw hat of the Caribbean but a "Straw Kelly" worked in a series of rough loops on loosely crocheted stretch nylon. They're very airy and most comfortable for sight-seeing or pool lolling.

CHIFFON FLOATERS

Evenings, when the ladies go all out, floating chiffons create just the right atmosphere in the romantic tropical climate. Chiffons are given a newer look when reworked, as sheer abstractions worn over opaque twin-prints.

Did Paris say skirts would go longer? Forget it. The women decree (especially the ones with great legs) that if anything, summer '67 will see even shorter skirts. Not just miniskirts, but mini-miniskirts—so short that they barely cover the derriere, with panties to match, cut either like jockey shorts or short ruffled bloomers. The ruffles peep out below the dress hemline.

MICRO BIKINIS

Last, but by no means least, we have the bikini. It no longer dots the beach. It covers it. And that's about all it covers. It's cut even smaller this season and gives the appearance of a shrunken diaper.

It still remains the ideal apparel for all sun worshipers but never did so little a thing do so much image damage to

A FREQUENT sight seen around the harbor in Puerto Rico now, wild print shifts in bold colors are bound to catch fire state-side in summer '67.

so many. Here is a fashion that the FIGURE must carry. It's too bad the more obese gals don't realize this.

But teeny bikinis to feathered hats, all the fashion goodies of the Caribbean will be here for the summer.

Flood Damage in Thailand

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Premier Thanom Kittikachorn went to southern Thailand today to inspect flood-damaged areas where about 40 persons are reported dead or missing.

The floods were caused by torrential rains which pelted the area Jan. 2-7. The flood waters now are receding.

Across the border in northern Malaysia, the toll of flood victims rose to 36. A government spokesman in Kuala Lumpur said at least 100,000 persons were driven from their homes.

In my judgment, the slogan black power has set the civil rights movement back considerably in the United States.

—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy

Aileen Reports:

By AILEEN SNODDY, Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

MOUDON, Switzerland — (NEA) — There we were—nine curious tourists standing in a wisp of rain on a dark, chill night thousands of miles from home.

Overshadowing us were the lighted battlements of the Chateau de Lucens a museum filled with memorabilia of Sherlock Holmes. In front of us the gate to the castle's drawbridge, scheduled to be open for a warm welcome, was barred. At the foot of the winding quarter-mile gravel road leading to the castle on the hill a hound bayed. Our only solace was the flickering flame of a cigarette lighter.

Unplanned though it was by the Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Foundation, the introduction to the castle was perfect. The mood was set as we stumbled back down the road toward the comfort of an inn in this city. We were ready to accept any mystery the townspeople might put on the table with the coffee and stinging Marc Iqueur.

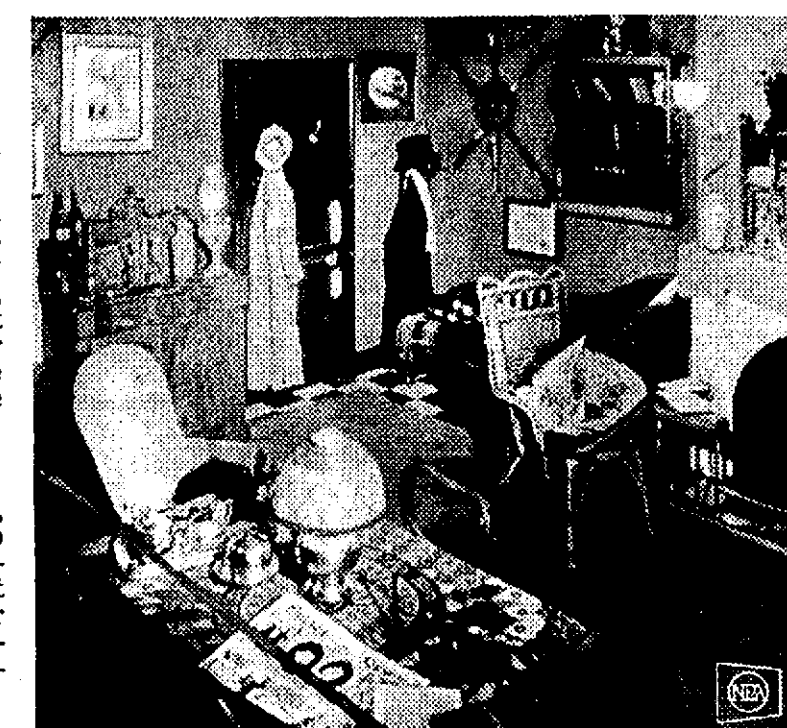

We weren't disappointed. There are two mysteries currently surrounding the castle. One, will the members of the Sherlock Holmes societies around the world meet here May 1, a historic date for Holmes? Two, is there really a ghost in the castle? (An implied third mystery hangs over all—is Sherlock Holmes really dead?)

Plans are under way to solve the first but involved are international communiques. The answer to the second question was closer at hand.

According to an authority on castles in Switzerland, the Swiss are "too practical to have ghosts." Perhaps this is why the apparition "appears" to an Englishwoman.

Mrs. Ennis Foley, wife of the castle's curator says, "some-one turns the water taps and lights off and on in the night... Pretty good for a starter. And she off-handedly admits these initial pranks are enough for her to prefer spending evenings far away from the fortification once used to protect the valley of Lucens near Lausanne.

her husband and son Charlie, who must ride a bicycle to school, find the assignment fascinating. For a cousin of the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and TEA AND BISCUITS await Sherlock Holmes and aide, Dr. Watson, in 221B Baker Street. Sitting room is authentically reproduced and exhibited in the Chateau de Lucens in Moudon, Switzerland. Castle is now Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Foundation.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

NOT THAT DISABLED

Dear Helen: I am 17 and baby-sit for two kids whenever I'm not at school. The father is always home while his wife is working. He is a disabled war veteran, but not that disabled. He's around 47 and keeps making passes at me. It's getting worse. Our family needs the money. Should I stick it out or quit school and get a better job? — F.B.S.

Dear F: Quit the job, but not school. You can find better-paying and much safer part-time work at stores, drive-in hamburger stands, restaurants. Inquire at your State Employment Office and start making applications—NOW! — H.

Dear Helen: My brother is a hog. All he does is eat, nothing else. He always makes a big mess when he cooks—burns the pots and pans, leaves the sink full of dishes and the stove and table disgusting. He eats about nine times a day since he quit school. He can't find a job because he is so overweight and I don't think he could get away from the kitchen that long.

My mother works and my father doesn't live with us, so I have to do all the housework. I am only 16, but feel like an old maid already. Never have any freedom and am always cleaning. If I don't do it, my mother hollers and throws things at me, then won't talk to me for days.

Once I went away for five days and when I got back the house hadn't been touched—they just waited for me to come home and clean it.

I can't date, and I can't have anyone visit me because my mother won't let people come when she isn't home, which is most of the time. Besides, I'm too tired to be nice to anyone what with school work, extra work and cleaning. Is there any hope? — DISHPAN HANDS AND TIRED

Dear Tired: If your mother doesn't crack down on her cloudy lump of son, she'll be feeding him all her life. Inasmuch as he has no job or no school, housecleaning should be HIS responsibility. A selfish family which expects all work and no play from a 16-year-old girl shouldn't be surprised when she leaves home for good the moment she is able.

Do you have relatives who would take you in?—H.

Dear Helen: Hurray for the mother who was in favor of school uniforms. I'm a 16-year-old junior who would adore them. In our school, the student's emphasis is not on education but on how many days a girl can go without wearing the same thing twice. If you don't want to be laughed out of your nylons, your shoes must come from the most expensive store 20 miles from our town. Ditto purse. Clothes? Well, if you want to make a decent showing, you've got to have a bank president for a father.

I'd love to wear knee socks, but this would give you about as many friends as contracting a case of bubonic plague. If you ever rub the "in" crowd the wrong way—you do if you don't dress as they do—you may as well dig a six foot hole and crawl in, being careful to drag all your socks with you.

My father isn't J. Paul Getty so I can't afford an entire new wardrobe every year, but it seems as if everyone else around here can. If you wear last year's styles, well, forget it—and you!

What happened to the "good old days" when it was what was inside that counted? — KNEE SOCKS LOVER

P. S. Nylons don't keep your legs warm on a winter day, besides.

Dear KSL: If the "in's" at your school are this snobbish, who needs them? Form an "anti-in crowd" and I'll bet it'll take off like a runner in cheap nylons. Many girls and most boys resent overemphasis on expensive clothes. It's the best way to look cheap.—H.

POSSIBLE SITE FOR SLEUTHS is Chateau de Lucens in Moudon, Switzerland. Wife of curator of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Foundation and museum here believes there is a ghost.

warms to the Doyle collection of books, letters, paintings, armor and the Holmes museum.

This makes the castle and its collection a "family affair" since the owner is Adrian Conan Doyle, Sir Arthur's son, who lives there several months of the year. He set up the Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Foundation and opened the exhibition in April, 1966, to the public.

Like so many steeped in the character of Holmes and his creator, Sir Arthur, Foley speaks of Holmes as though he will walk into the sitting room of 221B Baker Street reproduced here at any moment.

Certainly the picture gallery in the castle vaults shows how the movies help perpetuate the myth. These range from Alwyn Neuss, as Holmes in 1903, through Clive Brook, John Barrymore, Raymond Massey and Basil Rathbone to John Neville, the latest Holmes. He stars in "A Study in Terror" released this year in the United States.

Nothing took the edge off the visit to Lucens. The Inverness cape and deerstalker hat hung by the door of the famous sitting room reminds the visitor that the two friends are at home. The room originally was created in 1951 for the Festival of Britain.

From a dictaphone comes the voice of Adrian Conan Doyle, guiding the viewer's attention to a pipe, to a stethoscope, to some test tubes. In the background comes the clomp-clomp of a horse's hooves and the street chatter of the late 19th century people who passed the famous door in Baker Street.

On a cool, dark night in a strange setting, the adventures of Sherlock Holmes become as alive as (1) the beheading ax, swords and torture collar in the armory peopled by knights upstairs in the castle or (2) the final groan of a victim whose heart has been pierced by the shortest spike of more than 30 which makes the elusive Iron Maiden of Nurmberg one of the most terrible instruments of torture invented. She waits patiently in another wing of the castle.

The thought of intrigue, murder and torture highlighted in the Castle of Lucens is shiveringly quiet. Still lingering, though, is the aside of Foley to his wife on hearing her comment about the ghost: "Now, dear. You shouldn't talk about it. We really aren't sure."

Congress Woman Is Easy to Spot

By ERNEST G. WARREN

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's easy to spot the new congresswoman, even on the crowded floor of the House. Just look for a fast-moving, vivid splash of color.

Rep. Margaret Heckler, R-Mass., likes vivid colors, like the bright blue dress she wore at the opening session of the 90th Congress. And since she arrived in Washington, Mrs. Heckler has been a woman on the go.

There was her congressional debut with votes on whether to seat Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., (she voted against seating him) and on a change in House rules (she voted for it) and then the President's State of the Union message.

Sandwiched in between were visits and telephone calls from well-wishers and the details of getting settled in a congressional office and preparing to move into a rented home in suburban Virginia.

On her second day, the color had changed to a bright raspberry and the pace was a little less frantic. The third day of the session found her outfitted in a reddish-pink dress.

A slender 5 foot 2½ inches tall (she dislikes being called "petite"), Mrs. Heckler has bright blue eyes and wears her dark reddish hair in bangs across her forehead and a french twist in back.

At 35, she challenged former House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr., R-Mass., in the primary election, and scored an upset. At the time of his defeat, Martin ranked second in seniority in the House, having entered Congress several years before Mrs. Heckler was born.

In a quick glance at her first couple of days in Congress, she pronounced the experience "monumental and quickly sobering."

As for the opening day controversy over seating Powell, she said, "I feel strongly that there is a need for a code of congressional ethics. It should set the standards for all, and those who violate the code should be brought before their peers."

A lawyer, she said she was especially anxious for judiciary committee appointment.

She and her husband, John, an investment broker who has transferred to a Washington firm, have rented a home for themselves and three children in nearby McLean, Va. They hope to move in by Feb. 10.

Mrs. Heckler said moving the children here created no problem.

"They (Belinda, 10 Allison, 8, and John Jr., 6) are young, healthy and adventuresome. It is adding new dimensions to their lives."

John Kennedy was my President. To suggest that I would dishonor his memory, or my association with him is both cruel and unjust. —William Manchester on his book, "The Death of a President."

Saenger THEATRE

TODAY
"THE RARE BREED"
"AGENT FOR H.A.R.M."
LATE SHOW TONITE
SUNDAY-MONDAY
ADVENTURE BEGINS
SOUTHWEST TO SONORA!

Marlon Brando
ANJANETTE COMER
JOHN SAXEN
THE APPALOOSA
TECHNICOLOR

Weekly Radio & Television Schedule

Sunday

KTAL-Channel 6

6:55	Morning Devotional
7:00	Frontiers of Faith
7:30	Willie Caston Spiritual
8:00	The Bob Poole Show
9:00	Gospel Singing Jubilee
10:00	Texarkana Town Topics
10:30	International Sunday School
10:45	First Baptist Church, Texarkana
11:30	Meet the Press (Special)
12:30	Jaycee Forum
1:00	Sunday Showtime - "Outlaw's Son," Dan Clark, Lorrie Nelson
2:30	Super Bowl
6:30	Walt Disney Wonderful World of Color
7:30	Hey, Landlord
8:00	Bonanza - c
9:00	Andy Williams Show - c
10:00	Newscape - Dave McClelland, Vern Stermann - c
10:30	Sunday Tonight Show
12:00	Evening Devotional

KSLS-Channel 12

6:45	Sacred Heart Program
7:00	Christopher Program
7:30	Hallelujah Train
8:30	Glory Road
9:00	The LeFevre Show - c
9:30	This Is The Life
10:00	Camera Three
10:30	Insight
11:00	Hour Of Worship-First Methodist Church
12:00	Dan Smoot
12:15	Pursuit Of Learning-c
12:30	William Buckley - Guest Hugh Hefner
1:30	CBS Sports Spectacular
2:30	NFL - AFL Super Bowl
6:30	Lassie
7:00	Ed Sullivan
8:00	Carol + 2
9:00	Candid Camera
10:00	News - Norton-Clements
10:15	CBS News - Reasoner
10:30	Capitol Issues
11:00	Face The Nation
11:30	Vespers

KTBS-Channel 3

6:00	Test Pattern
6:30	Eye On Agriculture
7:00	Beany & Cecil - c
7:30	Allen Revival Hour
8:00	Oral Roberts
8:30	The Living Way
9:00	Linus the Lionhearted
9:30	Peter Potamus
10:00	Bullwinkle
10:30	Discovery
11:00	Highland Baptist Church
12:00	Championship Bowling
12:30	Cadabod Gaddis
1:00	N. B. A. Basketball Philadelphia - Boston
3:00	This Colorful World
4:00	Lone Star Sportsman
4:30	Rocky & Friends
5:00	Bronco
6:00	Voyage to Bottom of Sea
7:00	F. B. I.
8:00	Sunday Night Movie The VIP's Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton
10:15	News & Weather
10:35	The Big Movie "Patterns" Van Heflin, Ed Bagley
	ABC Weekend News
	Sine Off

Monday

KTAL-Channel 6

6:05	Morning Devotional
6:10	Texarkana College
6:30	Farm Digest
6:45	Gospel Round-up
7:00	Today Show
7:25	News - George Dobson
7:30	Today Show
8:25	News - Bill Moore
8:30	Today Show
9:00	Reach for the Stars
9:25	Newsbreak
9:30	Concentration
10:00	Pat Boone Show
10:30	Hollywood Squares
11:00	Jeopardy
11:30	Snooky Lanson Show
12:30	Let's Make A Deal
12:55	Newsbreak - Herman Cecil
1:00	Days of Our Lives
1:30	The Doctors
2:00	Another World
2:30	You Don't Say
3:00	Match Game
3:25	News
3:30	Laffa Lot Club
4:30	Mike Douglas Show
5:30	Newscape - McLelland, Moore
5:55	Newscape - Stermann
6:00	Huntley - Brinkley Report
6:30	The Monkees
7:00	I Dream of Jeannie
7:30	Captain Nice
8:00	The Road West
9:00	Run For Your Life
10:00	Newscape
10:30	Tonight Show
12:00	Evening Devotional

KSLS-Channel 12

6:55	Your Pastor
7:05	CBS News - Benti
7:30	Bob & His Buddies
8:00	Captain Kangaroo
9:00	I Love Lucy
9:30	The McCoys
10:00	Andy Of Mayberry
10:30	Dick Van Dyke
11:00	Love of Life
11:25	CBS News - Benti
11:30	Search For Tomorrow
11:45	The Guiding Light

7:05	CBS News - Benti
7:30	Bob & His Buddies
8:00	Captain Kangaroo
9:00	Candid Camera
9:30	Beverly Hillsbillies
10:00	Andy of Mayberry
10:30	Dick Van Dyke
11:00	Love of Life
11:25	CBS News - Benti
11:30	Search For Tomorrow
11:45	The Guiding Light
12:00	News with Owen
12:30	As The World Turns
1:00	Password
1:30	House Party
2:00	To Tell The Truth
2:25	CBS News-Edwards
2:30	Edge Of Night
3:00	Secret Storm
3:30	The Millionaire
4:00	Pappa John Show
5:00	Country Music Caravan
5:30	CBS News-Cronkite
6:00	News - Owen
6:25	Weather - Bolton
6:30	Gilligan's Island
7:00	To Tell The Truth
7:30	The Lucy Show
8:00	Andy Griffith
8:30	The Monday Night Movie "The Strange Door", C. Laughton, B. Karloff
10:00	News - Dodson
10:25	Weather - Bolton
10:30	I've Got A Secret
11:00	Route 66
12:00	Weather Final
12:05	Vespers

KTBS-Channel 3

7:00	Miss Barbara
7:45	King & Oddie
8:00	8 O'Clock News
8:30	Supermarket Sweep
9:00	DIALING FOR DOLLARS
	THEATER "Night of January 16th"
10:30	The Dating Game
11:00	Donna Reed Show
11:30	Father Knows Best
12:00	Ben Casey
1:00	The Newlywed Game
1:30	Dream Girl
1:55	News-Marlene Sanders
2:00	General Hospital
2:30	The Nurses
3:00	Where The Action Is
3:30	Four O'Clock Movie "Voodoo Tiger" Johnny Weissmuller, Jean Bryon
5:25	News
5:30	Colt '45
6:00	Rifleman
6:30	The 6:30 Movie "The Goddess" Kim Stanley, Lloyd Bridges
8:30	Peyton Place
9:00	The Big Valley
9:30	News & Weather
10:00	Felony Squad
10:25	The Big Movie "Whose Hand At My Throat" Earl Holliman, Erika Peters
10:55	Tomorrow's Headlines
	Sine Off

KTBS-Channel 3

7:00	Miss Barbara
7:45	King & Oddie
8:00	8 O'Clock News
8:30	Supermarket Sweep
9:00	DIALING FOR DOLLARS
	THEATER "Night of January 16th"
10:30	The Dating Game
11:00	Donna Reed Show
11:30	Father Knows Best
12:00	Ben Casey
1:00	The Newlywed Game
1:30	Dream Girl
1:55	News-Marlene Sanders
2:00	General Hospital
2:30	The Nurses
3:00	Where The Action Is
3:30	Four O'Clock Movie "Voodoo Tiger" Johnny Weissmuller, Jean Bryon
5:25	News
5:30	Colt '45
6:00	Rifleman
6:30	The 6:30 Movie "The Goddess" Kim Stanley, Lloyd Bridges
8:30	Peyton Place
9:00	The Big Valley
9:30	News & Weather
10:00	Felony Squad
10:25	The Big Movie "Whose Hand At My Throat" Earl Holliman, Erika Peters
10:55	Tomorrow's Headlines
	Sine Off

Tuesday

KTAL-Channel 6

6:05	Morning Devotional
6:10	Texarkana College
6:30	Farm Digest
6:45	Gospel Round-up
7:00	Today Show
7:25	News - George Dobson
7:30	Today Show
8:25	News - Bill Moore
8:30	Today Show
9:00	Reach for the Stars
9:25	Newsbreak
9:30	Concentration
10:00	Pat Boone Show
10:30	Hollywood Squares
11:00	Jeopardy
11:30	Snooky Lanson Show
12:30	Let's Make A Deal
12:55	Newsbreak - Herman Cecil
1:00	Days of Our Lives
1:30	The Doctors
2:00	Another World
2:30	You Don't Say
3:00	Match Game
3:25	News
3:30	Laffa Lot Club
4:30	Mike Douglas Show
5:30	Newscape - McLelland, Moore
5:55	Newscape - Stermann
6:00	Huntley - Brinkley Report
6:30	The Girl From UNCLE
7:00	Occasional Wife
7:30	Tuesday Night at the Movies - "The Lion", William Holden, Capucine - c
10:00	Newscape - Dave McClelland, Bill Moore, Vern Stermann - c
10:30	Tonight Show - NBC - c
12:00	Evening Devotional

KTAL-Channel 6

6:05	Morning Devotional
6:10	Texarkana College
6:30	Farm Digest
6:45	Gospel Round-up
7:00	Today Show
7:25	News - George Dobson
7:30	Today Show
8:25	News - Bill Moore
8:30	Today Show
9:00	Reach for the Stars
9:25	Newsbreak
9:30	Concentration
10:00	Pat Boone Show
10:30	Hollywood Squares
11:00	Jeopardy
11:30	Snooky Lanson Show
12:30	Let's Make A Deal
12:55	Newsbreak - Herman Cecil
1:00	Days of Our Lives
1:30	The Doctors
2:00	Another World
2:30	You Don't Say
3:00	Match Game
3:25	News
3:30	Laffa Lot Club
4:30	Mike Douglas Show
5:30	Newscape - McLelland, Moore
5:55	Newscape - Stermann
6:00	Huntley - Brinkley Report
6:30	The Girl From UNCLE
7:00	Occasional Wife
7:30	Tuesday Night at the Movies - "The Lion", William Holden, Capucine - c
10:00	Newscape - Dave McClelland, Bill Moore, Vern Stermann - c
10:30	Tonight Show - NBC - c
12:00	Evening Devotional

KSLS-Channel 12

6:30	Your Pastor
7:05	CBS News - Benti
7:30	Bob & His Buddies
8:00	Captain Kangaroo
9:00	I Love Lucy
9:30	The McCoys
10:00	Andy Of Mayberry
10:30	Dick Van Dyke
11:00	Love of Life
11:25	CBS News - Benti
11:30	Search For Tomorrow
11:45	The Guiding Light
12:00	News with Owen
12:30	As The World Turns
1:00	Password
1:30	House Party
2:00	To Tell The Truth
2:25	CBS News-Edwards
2:30	Edge Of Night
3:00	Secret Storm
3:30	The Millionaire
4:00	Pappa John Show
5:00	Country Music Caravan
5:30	CBS News-Cronkite
6:00	News - Owen
6:25	Weather - Bolton
6:30	Cinderella
8:00	Green Acres
8:30	Gomer Pyle
9:00	Rawhide
10:00	News - Dodson
10:25	Weather - Griffin

KSLS-Channel 12

6:30	Your Pastor
7:05	CBS News - Benti
7:30	Bob & His Buddies
8:00	Captain Kangaroo
9:00	I Love Lucy
9:30	The McCoys
10:00	Andy Of Mayberry
10:30	Dick Van Dyke
11:00	Love of Life
11:25	CBS News - Benti
11:30	Search For Tomorrow
11:45	The Guiding Light

12:00	News with Owen
12:30	As The World Turns
1:00	Password
1:30	House Party
2:00	To Tell The Truth
2:25	CBS News-Edwards
2:30	Edge Of Night
3:00	Secret Storm
3:30	The Millionaire
4:00	Pappa John Show
5:00	Country Music Caravan
5:30	CBS News-Cronkite
6:00	News - Owen
6:25	Weather - Bolton
6:30	Daktari - c
7:30	Red Skelton
8:30	Petticoat Junction
9:00	CBS News Special "The Italians"
10:00	News - Dodson
10:25	Weather - Griffin
10:30	Family Affair
11:00	Route 66
12:00	Weather Final
12:05	Vespers

KTBS-Channel 3

7:00	Miss Barbara
7:45	King & Oddie
8:00	8 O'Clock News
8:30	Supermarket Sweep
9:00	DIALING FOR DOLLARS
	THEATER "Castle On The Hudson"
10:30	The Dating Game
11:00	Donna Reed Show
11:30	Father Knows Best
12:00	Ben Casey
1:00	The Newlywed Game
1:30	Dream Girl
1:55	News-Marlene Sanders
2:00	General Hospital
2:30	The Nurses
3:00	Where The Action Is
3:30	Four O'Clock Movie "You're In The Army Now" Phil Silvers, Jane Wyman
5:25	News & Weather
5:30	Yogi Bear
6:00	Rifleman
6:30	The Beatles
7:30	The Invaders
8:30	Peyton Place
9:00	Fugitive
10:00	News & Weather
10:20	The Big Movie "The Killing" Sterling Hayden, Coleen Gray
	Tomorrow's Headlines
	Sine Off

KTAL-Channel 6

6:05	Morning Devotional
6:10	Texarkana College
6:30	Farm Digest
6:45	Gospel Round-up
7:00	Today Show
7:25	News - George Dobson
7:30	Today Show
8:25	News - Bill Moore
8:30	Today Show
9:00	Reach for the Stars
9:25	Newsbreak
9:30	Concentration
10:00	Pat Boone Show
10:30	Hollywood Squares
11:00	Jeopardy
11:30	Snooky Lanson Show
12:30	Let's Make A Deal
12:55	Newsbreak - Herman Cecil
1:00	Days of Our Lives
1:30	The Doctors
2:00	Another World
2:30	You Don't Say
3:00	Match Game
3:25	News
3:30	Laffa Lot Club
4:30	Mike Douglas Show
5:30	Newscape - McLelland, Moore
5:55	Newscape - Stermann
6:00	Huntley - Brinkley Report
6:30	The Virginian - c
8:00	Bob Hope Christmas Show
9:30	The Barrump-Bump Show
10:00	Newscape
10:30	Tonight Show
12:00	Evening Devotional

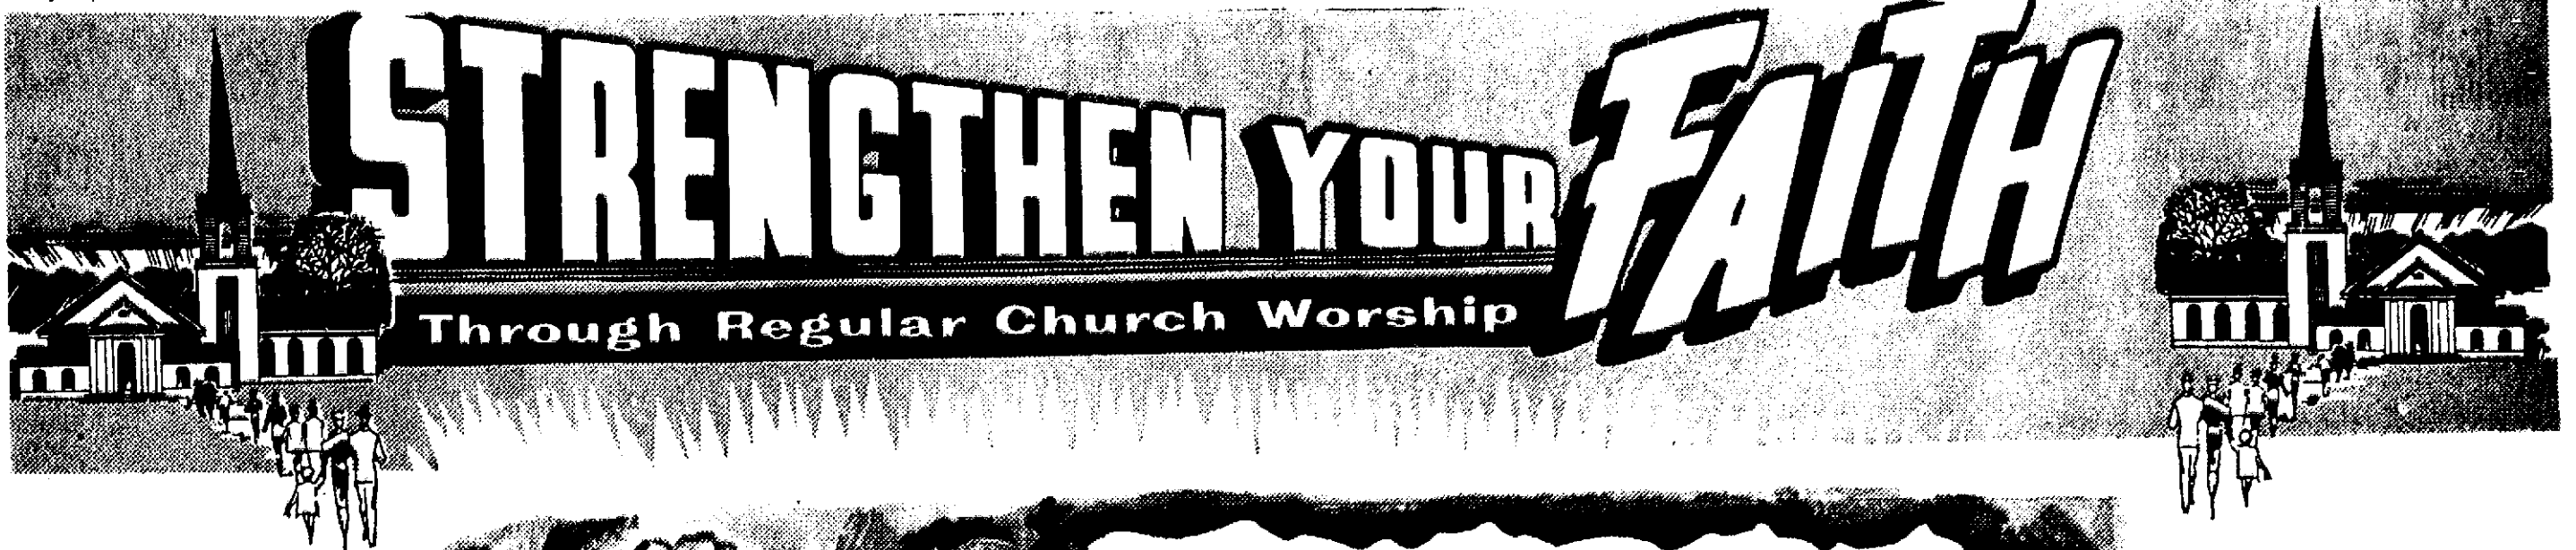

Wednesday

KTAL-Channel 6

6:05	Morning Devotional
6:10	Texarkana College
6:30	Farm Digest
6:45	Gospel Round-up
7:00	Today Show
7:25	News - George Dobson
7:30	Today Show
8:25	News - Bill Moore
8:30	Today Show
9:00	Reach for the Stars
9:25	Newsbreak
9:30	Concentration
10:00	Pat Boone Show
10:30	Hollywood Squares
11:00	Jeopardy
11:30	Snooky Lanson Show
12:30	Let's Make A Deal
12:55	Newsbreak - Herman Cecil
1:00	Days of Our Lives
1:30	The Doctors
2:00	Another World
2:30	You Don't Say
3:00	Match Game
3:25	News
3:30	Laffa Lot Club
4:30	Mike Douglas Show
5:30	Newscape - McLelland, Moore
5:55	Newscape - Stermann
6:00	Huntley - Brinkley Report
6:30	The Virginian - c
8:00	Bob Hope Christmas Show
9:30	The Barrump-Bump Show
10:00	Newscape
10:30	Tonight Show
12:00	Evening Devotional

KSLS-Channel 12

3:00	Match Game
3:25	News
3:30	Laffa Lot Club
4:30	Mike Douglas Show
5:30	Newscope - McLe Moore
5:55	Newscope - Slerma
6:00	Huntley - Brinkley R
6:30	The Virginian - c
8:00	Bob Hope Christmas
9:30	The Barump-Bump
10:00	Newscope
10:30	Tonight Show
12:00	Evening Devotional

"O, Come Let Us Sing Unto
The Lord," For
There is No Variableness in God's Cause, Nor In His Justice, Then,
Come Let Us Go To Church

Carroll Messer Food Center
Carroll Messer and Employes
Phone PR 7-3611

Dean's Truck Stop
Dean E. Murphy and Employes
Phone PR 7-9948

Main Pharmacy
Mrs. Jim Martindale and
R. C. Lehman Sr. Phone 7-2194

Fox Tire Company
Jesse McCorkle and Employes
Phone PR 7-3651

Perry's Truck Stop & Motel
Perry Campbell and Staff
Phone PR 7-5733

Hope Wire Products, Inc.
Harold S. Eakley and Employes
Phone PR 7-6721

Tol-E-Tex Oil Company
And Employes - Phone PR 7-3270

Still Auto Service
Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Still
Phone PR 7-3281

Cox Foundry & Machine Co.
Charlie, Johnny & Robert Cox
Phone PR 7-4401

Pippin & Yocom Ga. & Body Shop
Chester Pippin & Doyle Yocom
Phone PR 7-6611

Stephens Grocer Co.
Mrs. Herbert Stephens and
Harold M. Stephens - PR 7-6741

Coleman Garage
Mr. and Mrs. Y. C. Coleman
Phone PR 7-3243

Herndon Funeral Home
Rufus V. Herndon and Staff
Phone PR 7-4686

Hope Furniture Company
Rufus V. Herndon Jr. and Staff
Phone PR 7-5505

Hogue Esso Servicenter
Richard Hogue and Employes
Phone PR 7-2515

Hill & Tarpley Insurance & Real Estate
Frank Hill and Elbert Tarpley
Phone PR 7-2264

Bruner-Ivory Handle Co.
T. C. Cranford and Staff
Phone PR 7-2304

Hope Auto Company, Inc.
Tom and Frank McLarty
Phone PR 7-2371

Corn Belt Hatcheries of Arkansas
And Employes - Phone 7-6744

a parable

We have loved this top hero story since childhood. A boy from the country, unused to war, meets the giant Philistine warrior. It is quiet faith arrayed against arrogant boasting... the rustic sling with a stone in it against the great spear in the hand of might. How unequal will be the combat! But watch the deeper battle... reverence against evil. The giant is against all good and is confident victory must go to the strong.

David stands for spirituality upon which civilization must rest.

Thus the story is a parable of human life, in which the struggle between good and evil goes on forever in combat for the souls of us all. Evil has noise, power and wealth for support.

But back of the struggle is the faith that "Right is right as God is God, and right the day must win." Then read God's word and support His church with your means and your presence, and say with Sir Galahad, "My strength is the strength of ten, because my heart is pure."

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs
the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Change Works Its Corrosion
Upon Us As We Approach
Our Rendezvous With Death
But, We Are Under Sentence
To Honor God, To Ever Support His Church

Shanhouse & Sons, Inc.
Dorsey Askew - Phone PR 7-4651

Midwest Dairy Products
George Walden and Staff
Phone PR 7-4681

Hope Transfer & Storage Co.
Bill Stewart and Employes
Phone PR 7-3171

Meyer's Brown 'N Serve Bakery
Attend Church Every Sunday
Box 132, Hope, Arkansas

Dr. Charles S. Johnson, Chiropractor
901 S. Main St. - Phone 7-5353

Hope Livestock Commision Co.
Blant Jones and Employes
Phone PR 7-4451

LaGrone Williams Hardware
Mr. and Mrs. LaGrone Williams
119 S. Elm - Phone PR 7-3111

Young Chevrolet Co.
All the Youngs and Employes
Phone PR 7-2355

Crescent Drug Store
Frank Douglas - Owner
Phone PR 7-3424

James Motor Co.
Jim James - Phone PR 7-4400
Oldsmobile - Buick - Pontiac

Anthony Hardwood Lumber Co.
Horace Anthony and Employes
Phone PR 7-4623

James Cleaners
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. James
Phone PR 7-2816

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Montgomery
"Custom Slaughtering"
Phone PR 7-3808

Hosey's Downtown Texaco Service
Julian O. Hosey - Owner
Phone PR 7-9986

Hope Novelty & Temple Cigarette Co. Inc.
C. O. Temple & Employes - PR 7-3662

The Trading Post, Sales & Service
Lincoln, Mercury, Comet, Rambler
GMC Trucks - Ray Turner, Owner
Phone PR 7-4631

Arkansas Machine Specialty Co.
F. Paul O'Neal
Phone PR 7-2857

Mrs. J. D. Turnage
Hempstead County Clerk
Phone PR 7-2241

Oakcrest Funeral Home & Burial Association
Phone PR 7-6772

Seek Ye First The Kingdom of God
And His Righteousness;
And All These Things Shall Be Added Unto You.

You Can Do This Best Through Regular Worship At Church. Our Ministers and These Sponsoring Firms Urge

You To Attend Your Church Regularly.

Find yourself through FAITH in GOD... man's ONLY HOPE

Both your FAITH and your CHURCH GROW through REGULAR ATTENDANCE

"Oh, stop stewing, George! You won't be the only one there who looks ridiculous!"

"I think what I need is a complete rest! I've almost run out of symptoms!"

THE BORN LOSER

By ART SANSON

BARBS

By WALTER C. PARKES

The most frequent 1967 resolution—to do one's Christmas shopping REAL early—will also be the most frequent 1968 resolution.

Friendship, like a kiss, must be shared to be enjoyed.

Some of the suitcase-sized handbags women carry should be classified as unconcealed weapons.

Nothing in this world is impossible—except some of the weather we've had this winter.

TIZZY

by Kate Osann

"I always prefer a tub to a shower, don't you? Showers drown out the radio!"

Blondie

WIN AT BRIDGE

South Solves West's Problems

West had lots of problems with today's hand. To start with he didn't know if he should pass or bid one, three, four or five clubs. We can't find fault with his selection of a three-club call although we would prefer to start with one club only to allow for the possibility of getting together with partner in spades.

West's next problem came after North and South arrived at six hearts. He thought about sacrificing at seven clubs but finally came to the right decision and passed. Then he had to make his opening lead.

This did not seem like much of a problem to him. He placed the king of clubs on the table.

South had been having his own problems with the bidding. He had made a fine decision when he went to three hearts after his partner's three diamond overcall but he had almost lied about aces and was tempted to bid five clubs in response to his partner's Blackwood four no-trump.

When he looked at dummy, South wished he had lied. It seemed that East would sure-

ALLEY OOP

By V. T. HAMLIN

OUT OUR WAY

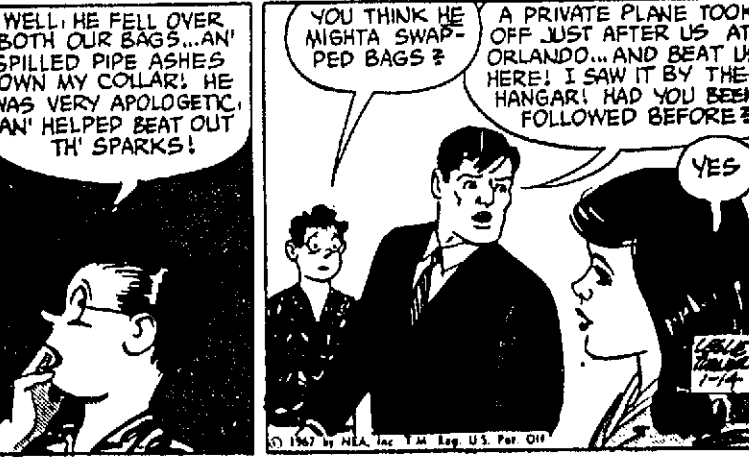

By NEG COCHRAN

CAPTAIN EASY

By LESLIE TURNER

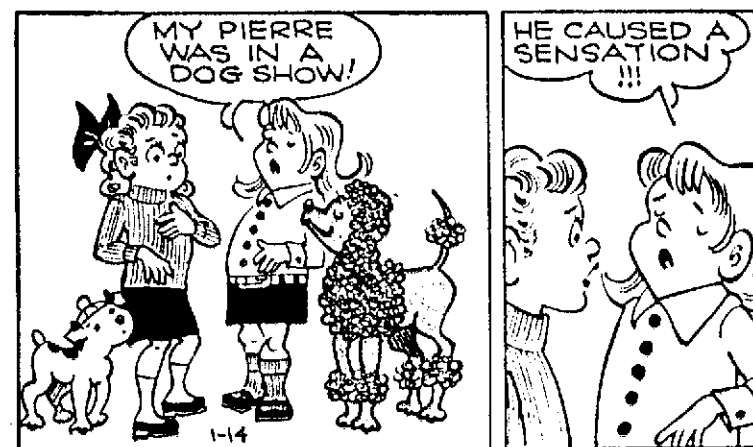

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By MAJOR HOOPLE

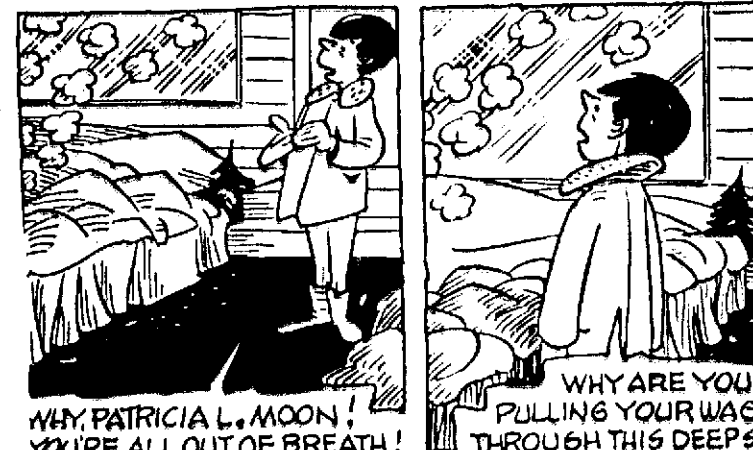

PRISCILLA'S POP

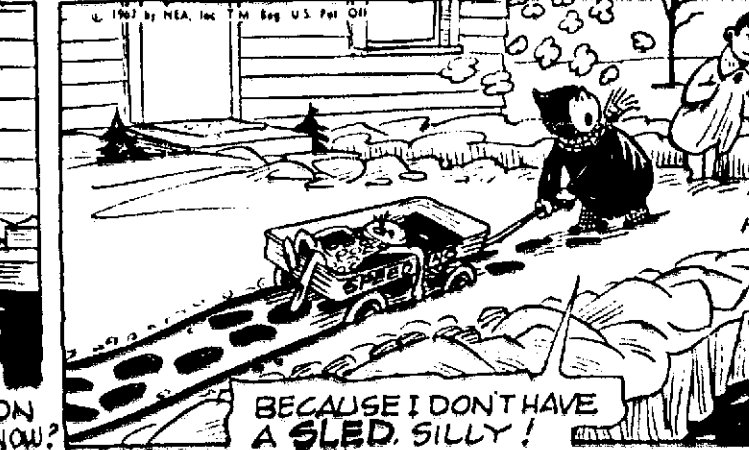

By AL VERMEER

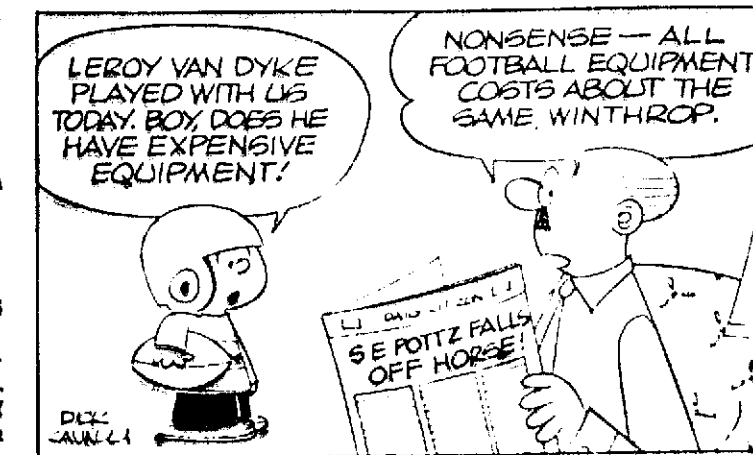

THE WILLETS

By WALT WETTERBERG

WINTHROP

By DICK CAVALLI

NORTH		14
♠ 9
♥ A Q 7 4 3
♦ A K Q J 9 5
♣ 2
WEST (D)	EAST
♠ A J 7 4	♥ Q 8 6 3
♥ 6	♦ K 2
♦ 2	♣ 8 7 6 4 3
♣ K Q J 10 9 7 5	♠ 8 4
SOUTH
♠ K 10 5 2
♥ J 10 9 8 5
♦ 10
♣ A 6 3
Both vulnerable
West	North	East	South
3 ♣	3 ♦	Pass	3 ♥
4 ♣	4 N. T.	Pass	5 ♦
Pass	6 ♥	Pass	Pass
Opening lead—♣ K

ly hold the king of hearts and that the slam would go down. East did hold the guarded king of hearts and if West had opened the ace of spades, South would have been unable to make his contract, but the club lead gave South an extra chance and he took advantage of it.

At trick two South led the jack of hearts but he went up with dummy's ace. Then he proceeded to run off dummy's diamonds and poor East had to follow suit while South jetisoned all his spades.

♥+CARD Sense♦♦

Q—The bidding has been:
West North East South
1 1 1 1
Pass 2 1 1
Pass 5 1 1
You, South, hold:
AJ98 K1065 32 J76
What do you do now?
A—Bid six spades. Your partner has not asked for aces. Therefore he wants to know if you have good spades. You have!

Hope Star Sports

Bobcats Get Past Magnolia

BY Larry Don Wright
Hope Star Sports Writer

The Hope Bobcats rose to the occasion once again on their home court to squeeze past Magnolia Panthers in overtime 51-47 last night in Jones Field House.

It marked the second consecutive home game that gave the Cats an overtime win. Last week they downed Fairview in a double overtime.

Bobcat post man Stan Parris pushed in a 17 foot jump shot as the buzzer sounded ending regulation play to tie the score and send the contest into the extra three minute period. The score was 47-47.

Then in overtime the Cats held the Panthers scoreless as they pushed their margin of victory to four points. Mike Westbrook sank both free throws of his one and one attempt with 10 seconds left to put the game on ice.

The lead swayed back and forth through the first three quarters of play with the margin of difference never exceeding six points. The halftime score was 25-25 and with 1:23 left in the third quarter Bobcat Larry East sank a set shot from the corner to put Hope ahead with a lead which they commanded throughout the final quarter.

At the end of three periods of play the Cats led 38-35. Midway through the 4th chapter the Bobcats at one time held a seven point lead.

This lead gradually dwindled and with 55 seconds left Hope held a mere one-point advantage, 45-44. Despite a Bobcat stall the Panthers went ahead 46-45 with less than 40 seconds remaining. A Magnolia free throw added another point to the difference. With eight seconds left the Panthers had a one and one situation and were out front by two points, 47-45.

The foul shot was missed and Parris got the rebound. He played it to Dwight Galloway who took it on the run at half court and dribbled into position for what would have been a 10-footer from the side of the goal.

Instead just as the Panthers caught up with him he turned and tossed the ball back out to Parris at the top of the key. The buzzer sounded just as Parris' shot stretched the net for the two points that put the game into overtime.

To open the extra period Parris contributed a free throw to the Hope cause by way of an early foul. About a minute later Galloway went to the foul line to add one of two free throws bringing the score to 49-47. The Panthers last ditch try failed as Parris rebounded the shot with 13 seconds remaining on the clock. A desperation foul by the Panthers then sent Westbrook to the foul line and he put the game away for Hope.

Parris led Hope in both points and rebounds, 18 and 10. In scoring he was followed by East with 10 and Luther Shaw with 8. Mike Westbrook had 5, Danny Griffith 5, Stan Reyenga 3 and Galloway 1.

The outcome sent both teams district records to two wins and one loss as Magnolia had previously been undefeated in district play.

The Bobcats will be at home again tonight to play host to the Arkadelphia Badgers in Jones Field House. The Junior High game begins at 6:30 p.m.

Won't Discuss Vietnam Visit

HONG KONG (AP) — Harrison E. Salisbury, an assistant managing editor of The New York Times, arrived in Hong Kong today but said he could not discuss his two-week visit to North Vietnam until he gets back to New York.

"I have a lot of work I must finish before leaving here tomorrow and I have no time for anything else," he said.

Goldwater Visits in Far East

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Barry Goldwater arrived in Taipei today for a two-day visit to Formosa.

The unsuccessful 1964 Republican presidential candidate was accompanied by his wife on the flight from Tokyo.

They leave for Hong Kong Sunday.

Outdoor Notebook

LAKE WALES, Fla.—(NEA)—The blue denim jacket, with the badge of the deputy sheriff of Polk County glinting like a combat medal in the morning sunlight, had been wrapped around the gaunt shoulders of the hound dog they call Tiger and with each slam of his fading heart, his eyes took on the glaze of death.

A hundred yards away a 300-pound wild hog lay in the tall grass with a dozen .22 caliber bullets buried in his head. Although it would be medically accurate to say the bullets killed the brute, it was this little brown package of guts and blood known as Tiger—with his life flowing like syrup from the openings in his stomach—who must get all credit if, indeed, credits are in order.

You looked down at the dying dog there in the palmetto country while you waited for Roger, the guide, to bring the truck across the fields from the road and you noticed that your clothes were soaked with sweat and suddenly the entire picture of violence flashed onto your memory.

There is Jerry Kenney, outdoors editor of the N. Y. Daily News, and Roger and Tiger swinging wide, skirting a palmetto clump a thousand yards ahead. It is mid-morning and the sun sears through the lifting mist and presses into your back.

Suddenly, Tiger catches scent and pirouettes on his left hind foot and moves tightly into a patch of tall grass. "He's onto something!" whispers Roger. Two, three minutes go by.

Then come the squeals and yelps and Roger is running into the high brush and the two hunters are right behind, each wondering how he will handle an enraged hog in such tall grass or, for that matter, if the whole idea of the hunt won't be reversed with the hog stalking the men.

Now the three men surround the spot in the grass where Tiger and the prey are ripping each other apart. Suddenly, the grass begins to open up in a widening "V" in front of Kenney. The "V" shoots toward Kenney who starts back-pedaling. "Shoot, Mr. Kenney, shoot!" screams Roger. Kenney fires his double-O buckshot into the movement. He trips, falling backwards. The hog with Tiger's jaws locked on its ear, turns around and charges Roger. Roger, dancing like a featherweight, pumps six shots from his .22 revolver into the squealing, charging beast.

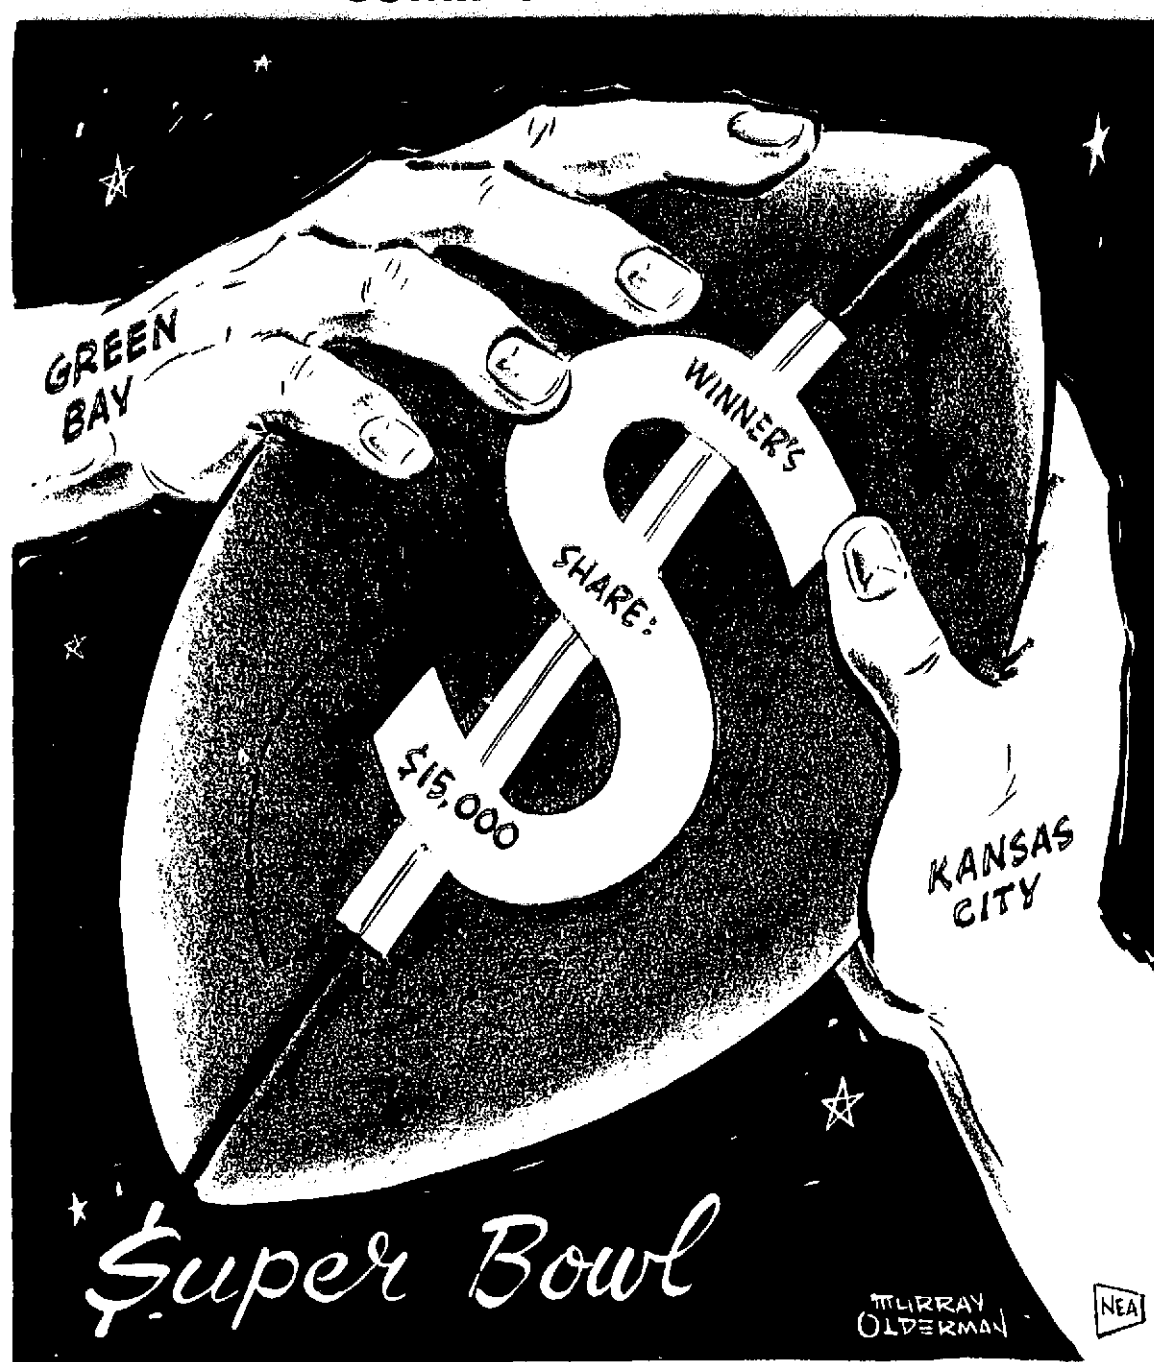

Finally the hog drops. Roger, sweat running down his blood-spattered face, reloads his gun and places it against the forehead of the brute. He pulls the trigger six times. With each shot the hog gives out with a great, grunting heave.

It is not known at this writing whether Tiger will live to hunt again. But if Tiger makes it he will continue to hate wild hogs and will have no fear at his next meeting with one.

The same cannot be said for at least one of the hunters.

Booth Lusteg of the Buffalo Bills, Gary Kroner of the Denver Broncos and Mike Mercer of the Kansas City Chiefs kicked four field goals in a single AFL game last season.

HOPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset COMING TO GRIPS

Utopia Super Bowl Match-Ups in Sight

By SANDY PADWE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—It sticks in the memory, that scene in Buffalo the day Kansas City defeated the Bills to win the American Football League championship.

The mud-spattered players from both teams were headed for their dressing rooms, but there only was one approach through a dank, dim tunnel under ancient War Memorial Stadium.

Minutes before, these same men were clawing at each other for the chance to earn the biggest payoff in the history of professional sports. Now it was over and the visitors had earned that opportunity.

As members of the teams brushed against each other in the narrow corridor, there were handshakes and quiet, but sincere, wishes of good luck from the losers. They, too, were thinking of the first professional championship game, two weeks away.

"Show 'em," said Buffalo's huge defensive tackle Jim Dunaway, "show 'em what kind of football we play in the AFL."

The Chiefs need few reminders. For them, this game transcends everything in their collective careers.

On Sunday afternoon, Jan. 15, they not only will represent Kansas City against Green Bay, but they will also represent Oakland, San Diego, Denver, Miami, Buffalo, Boston, Houston and New York.

"I'm glad we're representing the league," said Kansas City's All-League offensive tackle Jim Tyrer, a six-year performer for the Chiefs. "You don't understand what this means to us."

"Do you know how it feels to have your ability questioned the way ours was for all those years by the NFL?"

"Now we're within sight of the Utopia we've sought for a long time."

Like Tyrer, Jerry Mays, the all-AFL defensive end, is finishing his sixth year with the Chiefs. He also remembers the early days in the AFL.

"To those of us who played with the old Dallas Texans, this game means more than you could ever put in words."

"We were bad-mouthed so much when we were in Dallas. They told us we were minor league. I'm from Dallas. I played for SMU. I've never forgotten all those things that were said."

"To me, the money from this game is a fringe benefit. I just want to prove this is a major league. The opportunity to do it is an honor. We all have a lot of pride. Nobody likes to be looked down on."

Rookie halfback Mike Garrett from Southern Cal. was a sophomore in high school when the AFL played its inaugural season in 1960.

Now, he is the spark that makes the Chiefs' running attack so potent.

"I realize how those guys feel," Mike said, looking across the room at Tyrer, Mays, Sherrill Headrick and Curt Merz, all long-time performers with the Chiefs.

"And I know how I feel. I'm going home and I want to show all those people back there how good this league is."

Mike Garrett has been in the situation of proving himself before. "Like all my life," he said. "They always said I was too small. And for years they've been saying this league isn't good enough. Well, I had a choice between the Rams and Chiefs. I took the team I thought had the most potential."

Someone asked Garrett how he would run against the Packers.

"How does anyone run against the Packers?" he said, smiling. "We'll find a way, though."

The Chiefs' enthusiasm has, as expected, been mistaken for boasting. The narrow-minded always have problems analyzing things.

True, Green Bay should be the favorite in this game. But it also is important to remember that the Dallas Cowboys came very close to matching Green Bay in the NFL title game.

And, if you remember, the Dallas Cowboys played their first game in 1960, the same year the Dallas Texans, now the Kansas City Chiefs, began competition in the American League.

A FLOWERY HORSE
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Kauai King, retired winner of the 1966 Kentucky Derby, recently sent flowers to a hospital patient, Mrs. Frances McKay.

For months, Mrs. McKay had been dropping notes to the thoroughbred, making suggestions about his training program.

One of her notes, advising of her hospitalization, reached the horse's owner, Mike Ford, in Omaha where he was hospitalized.

He promptly dispatched a huge bouquet of pink and rose carnations. The card attached carried best wishes from "Your Pal, Kauai King."

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
Sports Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

GREEN BAY

RECEIVERS—Carroll Dale, 6-2, 200, 28; Marv Fleming, 6-4, 235, 24; Boyd Dowler, 6-5, 225, 28—Dole best deep threat. Vince Lombardi calls Fleming most improved player on club. Dowler has size.

RUNNERS—Elijah Pitts, 6-1, 205, 27; Jim Taylor, 6-0, 215, 30; Paul Hornung, 6-2, 215, 30—Taylor best man on field for tough yardage. Pitts fastest of all backs and receiving threat.

OFFENSIVE LINE—Bob Skoronski, 6-3, 250, 32; Fuzzy Thurston, 6-1, 245, 32; Bill Curry, 6-2, 235, 24; Jerry Kramer, 6-3, 245, 30; Forrest Gregg, 6-4, 250, 32—Oldest part of Packers. Gregg superb downfield blocker. Kramer, Thurston seal inside on pass protection.

QUARTERBACK—Bart Starr, 6-1, 200, 32—Surpassed Johnny Unitas as ranking quarterback in football. Proved against Dallas he was not a conservative quarterback.

DEFENSIVE LINE—Willie Davis, 6-3, 245, 32; Ron Kostelnik, 6-4, 260, 26; Henry Jordan, 6-3, 250, 31; Lionel Aldridge, 6-4, 245, 25—Not really big, but protected by size of linebackers. Davis, Jordan probably most mobile linemen in football, but you can run straight at them. Kostelnik has good instinct for ball.

LINEBACKERS—Dave Robinson, 6-3, 245, 25; Ray Nitschke, 6-3, 240, 29; Lee Roy Caffey, 6-3, 250, 25—Strongest set in pro football, also biggest. Nitschke at 240 is a midget. Tough against run, but equally capable in pass coverage.

DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD—Herb Adderley, 6-0, 210, 27; Bob Jeter, 6-1, 205, 29; Tom Brown, 6-1, 190, 25; Willie Wood, 5-10, 190, 29—Wood, Adderley all-pro. Jeter is improving. Brown at strongside safety is possible weak spot.

KICKING—Don Chandler, 6-2, 210, 32—Don has become erratic.

KANSAS CITY

RECEIVERS—Otis Taylor, 6-2, 211, 23; Chris Burford, 6-3, 220, 28; Fred Arbanas, 6-3, 240, 27—Taylor most spectacular on both sides, probably best, too. Burford is the Ray Berry type: smart, with sure hands. Arbanas is a strong blocker.

OFFENSIVE LINE—Jim Tyrer, 6-6, 292, 27; Ed Budde, 6-5, 260, 25; Wayne Frazier, 6-3, 245, 25; Curt Merz, 6-4, 267, 27; Dave Hill, 6-5, 264, 25—Strongest on left side with Tyrer and Budde who are bigger than anyone Green Bay can offer. Others just average pros.

RUNNING BACKS—Mike Garrett, 5-9, 195, 22; Bert Coan, 6-4, 220, 26; Curtis McLinton, 6-3, 227, 27—Garrett's a winner with the upper torso of a 225-pounder. Bert Coan just as consistent. McLinton is a power type and good blocker.

QUARTERBACK—Len Dawson, 6-0, 190, 31—Dawson doesn't have great arm, but he's accurate and smart, though he might not be able to scramble against Green Bay's agile linemen.

DEFENSIVE LINE—Chuck Hurston, 6-6, 240, 24; Buck Buchanan, 6-7, 287, 26; Andy Rice, 6-2, 260, 24; Jerry Mays, 6-4, 252, 26—Two outstanding talents in Mays and Buchanan. Overall have more size than Green Bay and still provide strong pass rush inside and out.

LINEBACKERS—E. J. Holub, 6-4, 236, 28; Sherrill Headrick, 6-2, 240, 26; Bobby Bell, 6-4, 228, 26—Almost a match for Green Bay. Probably a shade quicker overall. Bell can run with any back. Holub has had best year yet. Headrick can be spectacular.

DEFENSIVE BACKS—Fred Williamson, 6-3, 209, 28; Willie Mitchell, 6-1, 185, 24; Bobby Hunt, 6-1, 193, 24; Johnny Robinson, 6-1, 205, 27—Chiefs might be burned at corner, especially right corner where Mitchell is least experienced. Robinson, Hunt have had five years and are good ball hawks. Chiefs not especially fast in secondary, but don't have to be against Packers.

KICKING—Jerrell Wilson, 6-4, 222, 24 (punts), Mike Mercer, 6-0, 190, 28 (extra points, field goals)—Wilson is a good punter, Mercer has had great comeback after being cut by Oakland.

tack so potent.

"I realize how those guys feel," Mike said, looking across the room at Tyrer, Mays, Sherrill Headrick and Curt Merz, all long-time performers with the Chiefs.

"And I know how I feel. I'm going home and I want to show all those people back there how good this league is."

Mike Garrett has been in the situation of proving himself before. "Like all my life," he said. "They always said I was too small. And for years they've been saying this league isn't good enough. Well, I had a choice between the Rams and Chiefs. I took the team I thought had the most potential."

Someone asked Garrett how he would run against the Packers.

"How does anyone run against the Packers?" he said, smiling. "We'll find a way, though."

The Chiefs' enthusiasm has, as expected, been mistaken for boasting. The narrow-minded always have problems analyzing things.

True, Green Bay should be the favorite in this game. But it also is important to remember that the Dallas Cowboys came very close to matching Green Bay in the NFL title game.

And, if you remember, the Dallas Cowboys played their first game in 1960, the same year the Dallas Texans, now the Kansas City Chiefs, began competition in the American League.

A FLOWERY HORSE
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Kauai King, retired winner of the 1966 Kentucky Derby, recently sent flowers to a hospital patient, Mrs. Frances McKay.

For months, Mrs. McKay had been dropping notes to the thoroughbred, making suggestions about his training program.

One of her notes, advising of her hospitalization, reached the horse's owner, Mike Ford, in Omaha where he was hospitalized.

He promptly dispatched a huge bouquet of pink and rose carnations. The card attached carried best wishes from "Your Pal, Kauai King."

Olderman Picks Packers, 21-17

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
Sports Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—(NEA)—Can a good, old team beat a good, young team?

That's what the Super Bowl match-up of the Green Bay Packers and the Kansas City Chiefs amounts to. Ignore all that propaganda of the last six years about the AFL being a Mickey Mouse league. The Chiefs are a good team. No one doubts the Packers are.

The difference is in the experience.

Of the 23 men who play regularly on the offensive and defensive platoons of the Packers (I'm including Paul Hornung as an alternate halfback because he's always a strong possibility in a title game), 11 are 30 years old and over. Age shows most strongly on the attack, where the Packers average 29.1 years per man, with an experience quotient of 7.8. This is significant because the Packers have been laggardly at times this year in moving the ball consistently.

By comparison, the Chiefs on offense are only 26.1 years per man, and the entire squad has only one performer who's 30 or over—quarterback Len Dawson. Yet the Chiefs are mature enough in pro football background to have an experience average of 4.9 seasons per man.

Taking the trouble to break the age and experience down into departments, there's only one where the Packers are younger than their opponents. Their linebacking crew sports an average of 28.7 years vs. 27.7 for the Chiefs. In experience, they're virtually the same at six seasons per man.

Starting squad averages for each team are as follows: Green Bay—28.4 years old, 7.0 seasons of experience.

Kansas City—26.0 years old, 4.9 seasons of experience.

So much for figures. They mean primarily the Packers have been around a little longer, which in their case means they're more used to winning. They show five division championships in seven years against two for the Chiefs in the same period of time.

Physically, the Chiefs are a bigger team. They may have an edge in speed, too, with such swiftness as flanker Otis Taylor and halfback Mike Garrett on offense, and cornerback Willie Mitchell, a 9.6 sprinter, on defense. But the Packers are a shade quicker in the vital battle up front, in both the offensive and defensive lines. Despite their reputation for brute strength, the Green Bay legends have been led by agile customers like Jerry Kramer and Forrest Gregg on offense, Willie Davis and Henry Jordan on defense.

The most interesting match-up will be Gregg, an All-NFL tackle who's 32 years old and a 10-year man, against defensive end Jerry Mays, who's an All-AFL performer, 28 years old and a six-year man. In a way, they symbolize the divergent characteristics of both teams—one the steady man of a proven team, battle-tested if you don't mind that expression, the other an eager, aggressive star of a team struggling for acceptance. Both Gregg and Mays were outstanding college tackles at Southern Methodist in different eras.

"He was," says Jerry simply, "my idol."

Only symbolically, however.

I don't think the factor of individual psyche enters into the game considerations at all. Kansas City undoubtedly is eager to prove that the AFL has reached parity with the older league, but coach Vince Lombardi never has had trouble whipping his boys—all right, old men—into an emotional pitch. What counts is that they'll each be playing for $15,000 per man (against $7,500 for the losers). And that should be enough incentive for any pro.

I think the game can be decided on the strategic level. Lombardi of the Packers has a mania for perfection, doing simple things with maximum efficiency. Coach Henry Stram of the Chiefs is an innovator. He'll tinker with trick strategies. And translated into field action, Bart Starr is a steadier, headier quarterback than Lenny Dawson, more used to the pressure of championship play.

For that reason, I must stick with the chalk players and pick Green Bay to win the first annual Super Bowl. I don't think it'll be a rout. Kansas City's personnel is mature enough not to fold under the stress of facing Green Bay.

Make it Green Bay 21, Kansas City 17.

Liberal Tax Rules For Those Past 65

By RAY DE CRANE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Senior citizens — anyone who reached his 65th birthday by Dec. 31, 1966 — receive several important advantages on their annual income tax return.

1. Instead of the normal $600 personal exemption, accorded all under-65 taxpayers, senior citizens receive two $800 exemptions. If husband and wife are each 65 or older they receive a total of four exemption credits.

2. Full deduction for all their medical expenses, including all their drug bills, is allowed. This is the last year for this special privilege. (Beginning on 1967 returns—filed a year from now—those over 65 will be treated like all other taxpayers. Then, only medical expenses exceeding 3 per cent of adjusted gross income will be deductible and drug expenses will be considered only after exceeding 1 per cent of adjusted gross income.)

3. Profit is tax-free when they sell their home for $20,000 or less, regardless of how much profit was made on the sale. Even when the selling price exceeds $20,000, there is a major tax saving. This is a once-in-a-lifetime election. (Details of this feature were explained in an earlier chapter.)

4. A joint retirement income credit is allowed which could exempt, in effect, an additional $2,286 in income from tax at a 15 per cent rate if husband and wife are each 65 and they file a joint return. In another option, each one can compute separate credits beginning with $1,524.

And here's a $600 tip for some lucky senior citizens. Your age is determined on the day before your birthday. So if you celebrated your birthday on Jan. 1, 1967, you are considered by Uncle Sam to have been 65 on Dec. 31, 1966. This entitles you to two $800 exemption credits on your 1966 tax return.

(NEXT: Who is a dependent?)

A newly devised line-by-line, money-saving guide to filling out tax returns, containing the material in this series plus additional information, is being made available by this paper. Send name, address and 30 cents per copy to CUT YOUR OWN TAXES, c/o (Hope Star), P.O. Box 489, Dept. Radio City Station, New York, N.Y. 10019.

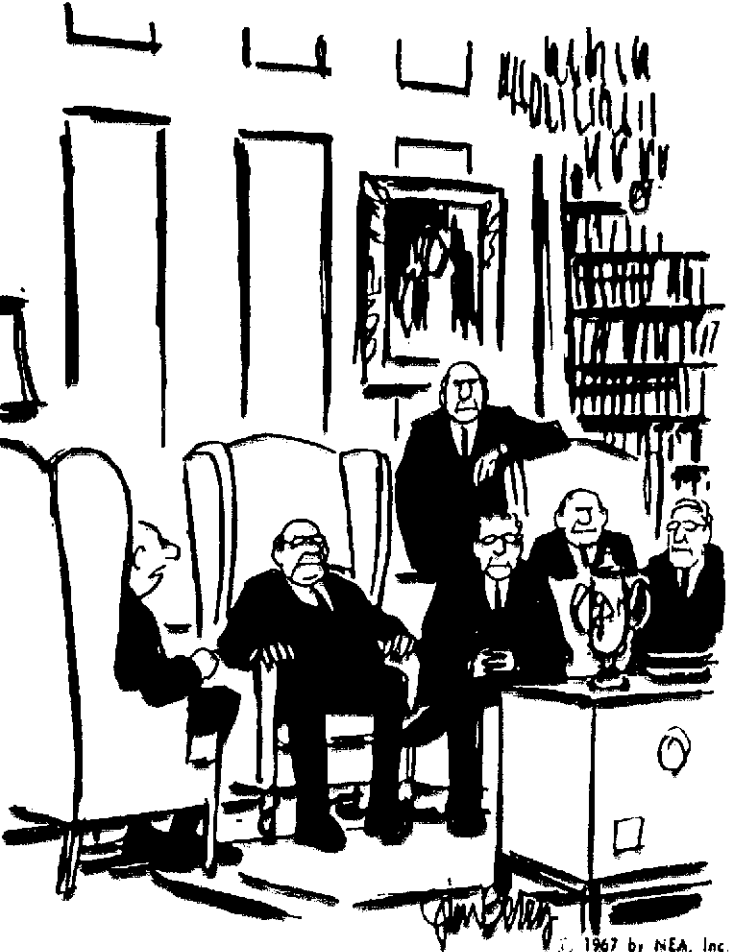

OFFICIATES IN TWO SPORTS
NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Kunkel, former Yankee relief pitcher, is an official in two sports.

He is a rookie official in the National Basketball Association and next season will be a baseball umpire in the International League.

TIGERS VISIT TWINS
BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP)—The Minnesota Twins will open their 1967 baseball season against the Detroit Tigers at Metropolitan Stadium here on Friday, April 14.

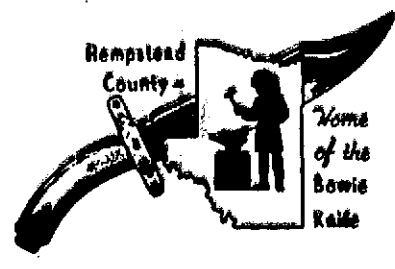

Thirty-eight of 81 home games will be played here at night.

BERRY'S WORLD

"I would just like to know who the devil NAMED the 'Super Bowl'?"

Hope

Star

Printed by Offset

City Subscribers: If you fail to get your Star please phone PR 7-3431 between 6 & 8:30 p.m. and a carrier will deliver your paper.

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. M. Washburn

With Other Editors

By Perfection's
Standard, Who Isn't
A Candidate For Correction?

VOL. 68 - No. 78

Star of Hope, 1899, Press 1927
Consolidated January 18, 1929

HOPE, ARKANSAS, SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1967

PRICE 10¢

BULLETIN

MOSCOW (AP) — A young American sentenced to three years in a Soviet labor camp, Buel Ray Wortham Jr., was released today on 20,000 rubles ($22,222.22) bail pending an appeal to the Russian Federation Supreme Court.

Critics May Hear From Rockefeller

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, severely criticized Friday by two state senators at the Arkansas Press Association convention over what they called a lack of communication, will get his chance today for rebuttal.

The governor is scheduled to address the editors and publishers attending the 95th annual convention at a luncheon today.

Sen. Robert Harvey of Swift, Sen. Morrell Cathright of Pine Bluff and Rep. Ray S. Smith of Hot Springs answered questions during a legislative forum Friday.

The two veteran senators said a complete lack of communication is responsible for the widening rift between Rockefeller and the state Senate.

Harvey, chairman of the Arkansas Legislative Council, and Cathright emphasized that they are considered independent but in the past they had not had difficulty communicating with a governor.

At times, there were mild verbal exchanges as the editors and publishers pressed the two senators for more information.

Harvey and Cathright complained that the only communication they had received was an unsigned photo-copy of a statement on a plain piece of paper.

"I don't know of a single senator who has had or who has been invited to a conference with the governor," Cathright said. "I don't know about his (Rockefeller's) open door policy because I haven't found the door yet," he added.

Cathright said he is serving under his fourth governor, and in the past, he said, there has always been a free flow of information between the governor's office and the Senate.

The senators said they objected to Rockefeller using the press to criticize the Senate rather than calling senators into his office and telling them of his wishes.

Harvey and Cathright also defended the Senate's action on confirming 93 appointments by former Gov. Orval Faubus. The Senate approved the appointments after Rockefeller requested they not be confirmed.

On another topic, Harvey defended the trusty system used in the state's prisons. He admitted the system had problems but said, "I'm not ready to get rid of the trusty system."

He said he was amazed when Rockefeller said "our prison system was the worst" in his inaugural address. State prisons with hired guards have trouble, too, he said.

Smith, who sat on the sidelines during most of the questioning, said it must be "realized that a new day has arrived in Arkansas."

"It would have come regardless of who was elected governor," he said.

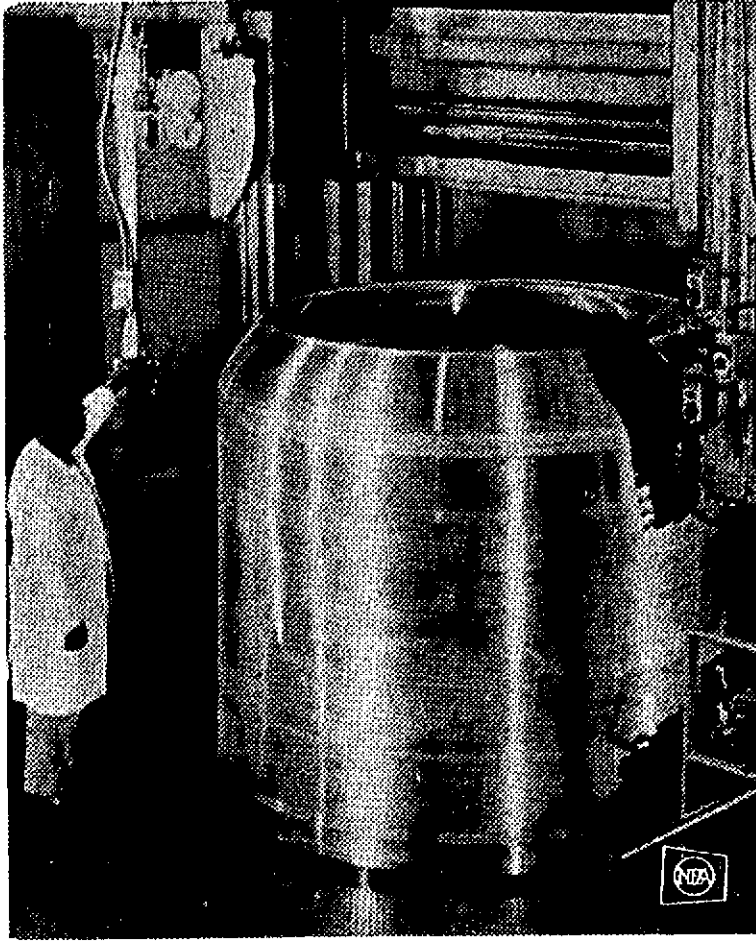

Smith said there is a new scent of freedom in state politics.

The association elected Cone Magle of Cabot as president to succeed Harlan Walker of McCrory.

Other officers are J. W. Jackson of Clinton, first vice president; Harry McDonald of Jonesboro, second vice president; Francis Murray of Huntsville, third vice president; George Gearhart of Fayetteville, fourth vice president.

Chancellor at N. C. University

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Dr. James S. Ferguson has been appointed chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Ferguson, 50, had been acting chancellor for two months.

GIANT ALUMINUM BOWL is machined to final dimensions in a Cleveland plant of Alcoa, to form a chamber to contain a nuclear reactor for rocket engines. Rockets with nuclear-powered engines are scheduled to be tested soon. The forgings of containers for the reactors represent some of the largest aluminum castings ever made.

Prospect of Being 56 Inevitably Inflicts Philosophic Thoughts

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — A glance at the calendar reminds me that next month I'll be 56 years old. What other blows can mankind take and still endure? The prospect of being 56 inevitably inflicts philosophic thoughts on a fellow.

Reaching that age may be a hollow victory, but it is still a victory. A majority of the human beings who have teemed the earth never lived to be 56.

Once you go beyond 55 you are getting into winter territory. You have an instinctive realization that there's frost ahead. It hits you somewhere inside like the blow of a mammoth hammer.

You have to face up to the fact that in many ways you are definitely over the hill. This has a glad as well as a sad side.

It is pleasant to know that you are still young enough to run for the presidency, if your country should call you, but too old to have to run for a post in the local P-T-A.

There are other erosions and compensations at 56: You no longer have to read the morale messages the boss pins up on the company bulletin board.

The doctor has a pretty definite idea what's wrong with you, and you know pretty well what's wrong with him. You enjoy exchanging symptoms.

If you donate a pint to the office blood bank, everybody tells you that you are a hero — something you've known for a long time.

On your actual birthday you get 27 get well cards and three careful pecks on the cheek by three homely secretaries.

You figure it is rather foolish to get short-winded bending over tying your shoelaces when they now sell shoes that don't need shoelaces.

Every time you wear a bow tie you feel devilish.

You decide it is easier to leave your bifocal glasses on all day than to waste your strength whipping them on and off.

It occurs to you now and then that William McKinley and Calvin Coolidge have never been really fully appreciated.

You abandon any idea of growing a beard because you know it would come out all white.

When you see a fellow go up the stairs two at a time you realize the world will never run out of fools.

It is a matter of quiet pride that you are married to a woman who doesn't wear a miniskirt.

It worries you terribly if one of your enemies falls ill. What a gap there'd be if there weren't any old enemies left to keep your spleen healthy.

You secretly agree with most of the things your wife says, but you'd rather die than admit it to her.

You can express most of your own opinions about the world with a clearcut grunt.

You lose any fear that you ever had of second childhood. In your heart of hearts you realize you are still in your first childhood, that nobody ever really grows up inside, and that life is always a kindergarten — but a worthwhile one.

Thant Says Cong Fear Red Chinese

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U Thant reportedly believes that fear of pressure from Red China has prevented North Vietnam from responding, even privately, to the U.S. offer to stop the bombing.

Informed sources said Thant feels that if Hanoi did make any move toward peace premised on a cessation of the U.S. air war against North Vietnam, Peking would find out and get the North Vietnamese to retract the offer.

Thant makes that contention, the sources said, in discussing U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg's request Dec. 19 that Thant seek "an assurance, private or otherwise, that there would be a reciprocal response toward peace from North Vietnam" if the bombing stopped.

The informants said their impression is that Thant is not in direct touch with Hanoi but arrived at this conclusion after talking to diplomats of other Communist countries.

This report appears to contradict Thant's contention at a news conference Tuesday that North Vietnamese leaders are independent of Communist China.

It also suggests that Thant had no hard facts to back up his statement then that he felt hopeful that an unconditional halt in the bombing would produce "a definite move toward negotiations." He said to tell about his private contacts could "spoil the whole thing."

Representatives at the United Nations of seven Asian governments friendly to the United States had an appointment with Thant today to ask him for an explanation of his remarks at the news conference about the situation in Southeast Asia.

They included diplomats from Nationalist China, Japan, the Philippines, South Korea, Laos, Malaysia and Thailand.

One of them said privately they would express their displeasure with what Thant said.

In addition to renewing his call for an end to the U.S. bombing, the secretary-general said South Vietnam is not vital to Western interests and security, that even if it fell to the Communists, neighboring countries would not necessarily follow, and that the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front is no stooge of Hanoi.

Thant said the U.S. warplanes knocked out North Vietnam's secondary airfields with a little-known series of bombing raids, sources said today. The raids apparently were halted sometime last year.

The United States has ruled only four major jet-capable bases in the Hanoi-Haiphong area off limits, the sources said. In 1965 and 1966 American strikes devastated five all-weather air strips which the Communists could have used in a pinch for the operation of their small fleet of Soviet-made MIG fighters.

Twenty-nine bombing raids unleashed hundreds of tons of explosives in 1965 against bases at the former French stronghold of Dien Bien Phu, 180 miles west of Hanoi; at the coastal city of Vinh, about 200 miles north of the demilitarized zone; at Na San, 100 miles west of Hanoi; and at Dong Hoi, another coastal town only 40 miles north of the DMZ.

Last year U.S. jets clobbered Dien Bien Phu again after Communist construction teams had almost completed repairs; another strip at Phu Tho, 50 miles northwest of Hanoi in the heavily defended Red River valley was attacked.

The Phu Tho strip was a new base. U.S. planes waited until construction was almost finished, then streaked in with a destructive bombing sweep.

The Communists sought to fix up the bases for possible use, especially at Dong Hoi, closest to South Vietnam, and Dien Bien Phu, which had been an important logistics transfer point.

Back came U.S. fighter-bombers.

"Finally they gave up trying to repair them," a Pentagon spokesman said today.

At last report the fields, which could accommodate the super-sonic MIG fighters, were still largely useless.

Exactly when the raids against the bases ceased is unclear. The last strike reported in military communiques occurred in February 1966 at Dien Bien Phu but Pentagon officials said this does not necessarily mean other raids were not conducted against supporting facilities — fuel dumps, barracks, terminals, warehouses — at the air fields.

Officially, the Pentagon said the fields were neutralized because they could have handled military flights bringing in military personnel and equipment.

Liquor Permits Bring Protests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Five liquor permits have been issued by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board and strong protests have arisen against two of them.

ABC Director Alvin E. Bell said Thursday permits were issued Monday at the direction of ex-Gov. Orval Faubus to establishments in Wilmar, Cabot, two at Springdale and West Memphis.

Bell said protests were made against the ones at Wilmar and Cabot.

He said objections to the Wilmar permit were that it was for a store eight miles from Arkansas A&M College. Objections to the Cabot permit were that the store was close to a legally dry area.

Enemy Air Fields Were Knocked Out

By BOB HORTON
WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. warplanes knocked out North Vietnam's secondary airfields with a little-known series of bombing raids, sources said today. The raids apparently were halted sometime last year.

The United States has ruled only four major jet-capable bases in the Hanoi-Haiphong area off limits, the sources said.

In 1965 and 1966 American strikes devastated five all-weather air strips which the Communists could have used in a pinch for the operation of their small fleet of Soviet-made MIG fighters.

Twenty-nine bombing raids unleashed hundreds of tons of explosives in 1965 against bases at the former French stronghold of Dien Bien Phu, 180 miles west of Hanoi; at the coastal city of Vinh, about 200 miles north of the demilitarized zone; at Na San, 100 miles west of Hanoi; and at Dong Hoi, another coastal town only 40 miles north of the DMZ.

Last year U.S. jets clobbered Dien Bien Phu again after Communist construction teams had almost completed repairs; another strip at Phu Tho, 50 miles northwest of Hanoi in the heavily defended Red River valley was attacked.

The Phu Tho strip was a new base. U.S. planes waited until construction was almost finished, then streaked in with a destructive bombing sweep.

The Communists sought to fix up the bases for possible use, especially at Dong Hoi, closest to South Vietnam, and Dien Bien Phu, which had been an important logistics transfer point.

Back came U.S. fighter-bombers.

"Finally they gave up trying to repair them," a Pentagon spokesman said today.

At last report the fields, which could accommodate the super-sonic MIG fighters, were still largely useless.

Exactly when the raids against the bases ceased is unclear. The last strike reported in military communiques occurred in February 1966 at Dien Bien Phu but Pentagon officials said this does not necessarily mean other raids were not conducted against supporting facilities — fuel dumps, barracks, terminals, warehouses — at the air fields.

Officially, the Pentagon said the fields were neutralized because they could have handled military flights bringing in military personnel and equipment.

Claim Chinese Jets Downed

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalist air force claimed that two Chinese Communist MIG19 jets were shot down today in a battle northeast of Quemoy over the Formosa Strait.

The Defense Ministry said four Nationalist planes on a routine patrol encountered 12 of the Red jets.

It said the MIGs attacked the Nationalist planes, and the latter returned the fire and downed two of the MIGs.

All four Nationalist planes returned safely to their base, the ministry said.

60-Year-Old Letter Shows China Has Always Been Confused

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

China is very much in the news this week with inside strife exceeded only by outside conflicts. If you are confused by it all, take heart. Others have been in the same state of mind for years. Sometimes the wisest observations about such matters are made by the youngest people, like the essays written by a 10-year-old girl from a small South Carolina city in 1904 and found in an attic trunk nearly 60 years later. We take excerpts from the ones printed by the Spartanburg (S.C.) Herald Tribune under the by-line of Virginia Cary Hudson.

China is far away across the ocean. I go to the ocean every summer to meet my cousins. One I love very much. I am praying to the Good Lord to make me love the other just a little.

China is very big. It is way up North and way over East and way down South and way out West. Way out West there is a big wall 1400 miles long and 20 feet high and 8 feet thick. On top of it is a smooth road. If I ever go to China, I hope I do not forget my roller skates.

China has millions of people. The tall ones live up North and the short ones live down South. My grandmother says my legs are too long. I would have to live up North and that would be awful. But maybe China does not have Yankees.

In China everybody eats rice. The poor ones do not have turkey and gravy and cranberries. Silk comes from China so they grow silk worms to make the silk. I do not like worms. When there is a caterpillar at the front door I go to the back door.

China is high. Mountains. China is low. Valleys. China has long rivers. People live on boats. They do not have to pay taxes or cut down South Vietnam today and grass. If they do not like the big American drive in the neighbors, they can move with-out packing up.

Missionaries go to China. Missionaries are people who are Christians who try to make Vietnamese commands listed other people Christians, too, many small clashes and these They can't get people to come to the church here and listen so they go to China to see if the Chinese will come and listen. I bet nam and the other in the south. they can't even talk like a Chinaman. A long trip for nothing if you ask me.

In China there are two classes southeast of Saigon and the of people, the upper crust and Navy boat sank with the loss of the under crust, just like there three of her seven-man crew. is in Leesville.

China has three religions started by Mr. Confucius (sic), Mr. Tao and Mr. Buddha. Leesville is ahead of China. Leesville has seven religions, Catholics, Episcopalians, Methodists, Baptists, Campbellites, Presbyterians, and Holy Rollers. I sure would love to see them roll, but my mother won't let me go.

The Chinese temples are very big and all paid for. They are 2,000 years old. Maybe in 2,000 years we will have our church paid for.

I hope I have not written too much. My mother says I talk too much. Judge Peters don't, I mean doesn't think so. When he comes, he brings me a book and I play for him on the piano. I bet he sure is bored with that.

P. S. Mrs. Dixon, if your conscience won't let you give me an A how about a B. If that woman keeps on giving me a zero in department, I will simply have to see the Bishop.

Their names were brought out by a savings and loan official who testified Thursday that Baker advised the savings and loan industry in 1962 to contribute $100,000 so "doors would be open" in Washington.

Later, most of the eight said they also had not collected any funds from the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., a onetime Baker business associate. The defense tried to bring out some publicly unexplained Kerr link during Thursday's testimony but was ruled out of order by U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver Gasch.

Baker is charged with income tax evasion, theft and conspiracy.

Of the eight members of Congress who were sworn in as witnesses, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the first two, were the only ones who actually testified. Each answered "he did not" when asked if Baker had made any contributions to their 1962 campaigns on Oct. 22, 1962, or thereafter.

For the others, defense attorney Edward Bennett Williams said, as each took the stand, he would stipulate they had received no such funds from Baker "on behalf of himself or others."

The other senators were Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; Frank Carlson, R-Kan.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; and Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah.

Williams asked Mills, "did Sen. Kerr make funds available to you?" But Gasch upheld the prosecution objection. Williams said he would have asked the senators the same question.

Later, Mills and several of the senators denied getting any money from Kerr.

Red Losses 450 in Viet Nam Fighting

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Sharp fighting flared up and do not have to pay taxes or cut down South Vietnam today and grass. If they do not like the big American drive in the neighbors, they can move with-out packing up.

Missionaries go to China. Missionaries are people who are Christians who try to make Vietnamese commands listed other people Christians, too, many small clashes and these They can't get people to come to the church here and listen so they go to China to see if the Chinese will come and listen. I bet nam and the other in the south. they can't even talk like a Chinaman. A long trip for nothing if you ask me.

In China there are two classes southeast of Saigon and the of people, the upper crust and Navy boat sank with the loss of the under crust, just like there three of her seven-man crew. is in Leesville.

China has three religions started by Mr. Confucius (sic), Mr. Tao and Mr. Buddha. Leesville is ahead of China. Leesville has seven religions, Catholics, Episcopalians, Methodists, Baptists, Campbellites, Presbyterians, and Holy Rollers. I sure would love to see them roll, but my mother won't let me go.

The Chinese temples are very big and all paid for. They are 2,000 years old. Maybe in 2,000 years we will have our church paid for.

I hope I have not written too much. My mother says I talk too much. Judge Peters don't, I mean doesn't think so. When he comes, he brings me a book and I play for him on the piano. I bet he sure is bored with that.

P. S. Mrs. Dixon, if your conscience won't let you give me an A how about a B. If that woman keeps on giving me a zero in department, I will simply have to see the Bishop.

Their names were brought out by a savings and loan official who testified Thursday that Baker advised the savings and loan industry in 1962 to contribute $100,000 so "doors would be open" in Washington.

Later, most of the eight said they also had not collected any funds from the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., a onetime Baker business associate. The defense tried to bring out some publicly unexplained Kerr link during Thursday's testimony but was ruled out of order by U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver Gasch.

Baker is charged with income tax evasion, theft and conspiracy.

Of the eight members of Congress who were sworn in as witnesses, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the first two, were the only ones who actually testified. Each answered "he did not" when asked if Baker had made any contributions to their 1962 campaigns on Oct. 22, 1962, or thereafter.

For the others, defense attorney Edward Bennett Williams said, as each took the stand, he would stipulate they had received no such funds from Baker "on behalf of himself or others."

The other senators were Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; Frank Carlson, R-Kan.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; and Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah.

Williams asked Mills, "did Sen. Kerr make funds available to you?" But Gasch upheld the prosecution objection. Williams said he would have asked the senators the same question.

Later, Mills and several of the senators denied getting any money from Kerr.

Of the eight members of Congress who were sworn in as witnesses, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the first two, were the only ones who actually testified. Each answered "he did not" when asked if Baker had made any contributions to their 1962 campaigns on Oct. 22, 1962, or thereafter.

For the others, defense attorney Edward Bennett Williams said, as each took the stand, he would stipulate they had received no such funds from Baker "on behalf of himself or others."

The other senators were Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; Frank Carlson, R-Kan.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; and Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah.

Williams asked Mills, "did Sen. Kerr make funds available to you?" But Gasch upheld the prosecution objection. Williams said he would have asked the senators the same question.

Later, Mills and several of the senators denied getting any money from Kerr.

Of the eight members of Congress who were sworn in as witnesses, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the first two, were the only ones who actually testified. Each answered "he did not" when asked if Baker had made any contributions to their 1962 campaigns on Oct. 22, 1962, or thereafter.

For the others, defense attorney Edward Bennett Williams said, as each took the stand, he would stipulate they had received no such funds from Baker "on behalf of himself or others."

The other senators were Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; Frank Carlson, R-Kan.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; and Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah.

Williams asked Mills, "did Sen. Kerr make funds available to you?" But Gasch upheld the prosecution objection. Williams said he would have asked the senators the same question.

Later, Mills and several of the senators denied getting any money from Kerr.

Of the eight members of Congress who were sworn in as witnesses, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the first two, were the only ones who actually testified. Each answered "he did not" when asked if Baker had made any contributions to their 1962 campaigns on Oct. 22, 1962, or thereafter.

For the others, defense attorney Edward Bennett Williams said, as each took the stand, he would stipulate they had received no such funds from Baker "on behalf of himself or others."

The other senators were Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; Frank Carlson, R-Kan.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; and Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah.

Williams asked Mills, "did Sen. Kerr make funds available to you?" But Gasch upheld the prosecution objection. Williams said he would have asked the senators the same question.

Later, Mills and several of the senators denied getting any money from Kerr.

Of the eight members of Congress who were sworn in as witnesses, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the first two, were the only ones who actually testified. Each answered "he did not" when asked if Baker had made any contributions to their 1962 campaigns on Oct. 22, 1962, or thereafter.

For the others, defense attorney Edward Bennett Williams said, as each took the stand, he would stipulate they had received no such funds from Baker "on behalf of himself or others."

The other senators were Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; Frank Carlson, R-Kan.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; and Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah.

Williams asked Mills, "did Sen. Kerr make funds available to you?" But Gasch upheld the prosecution objection. Williams said he would have asked the senators the same question.

Later, Mills and several of the senators denied getting any money from Kerr.

Of the eight members of Congress who were sworn in as witnesses, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., the first two, were the only ones who actually testified. Each answered "he did not" when asked if Baker had made any contributions to their 1962 campaigns on Oct. 22, 1962, or thereafter.

For the others, defense attorney Edward Bennett Williams said, as each took the stand, he would stipulate they had received no such funds from Baker "on behalf of himself or others."

The other senators were Carl Hayden, D-Ariz.; George A. Smathers, D-Fla.; Frank Carlson, R-Kan.; Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill.; Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.; and Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah.

Williams asked Mills, "did Sen. Kerr make funds available to you?" But Gasch upheld the prosecution objection. Williams said he would have asked the senators the same question.